FBI Finds Burned Auto Used by 3 Missing Men

Allen Dulles Goes to Mississippi on Mission For President Johnson

BY MICHAEL SMITH

PHILADELPHIA, Miss. (AP) — Allen W. Dulles, former chief of the Central Intelligence Agency, flies to Mississippi today on a White House mission to look into the mysterious disappearance of three young civil rights workers.

The charred hulk of the station wagon used by the trio was found by FBI agents late Tuesday at the edge of a swamp off a lonely road northeast of this central Mississippi town.

Philadelphia is the seat of justice for Neshoba County, called jective, I have no doubt that he will find that law and order prevail," the governor said.

The station wagon was found about 100 feet from State 21, 15 miles northeast of Philadelphia, where Owl Creek backs away to form a backwater slough.

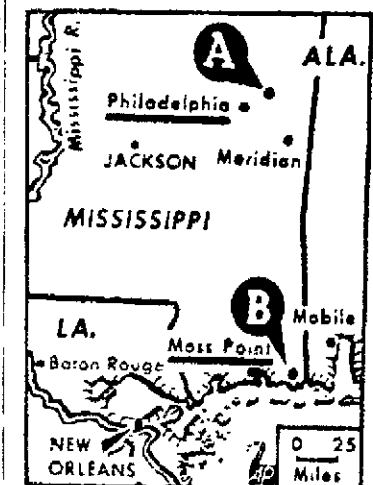

Automobile Guarded
There was speculation that the bodies of the three civil rights workers were somewhere under the dark, cold waters.

The station wagon was towed to a garage here and kept under guard. Two FBI laboratory technicians were to study it today.

Schwerner, who had been working in the Meridian area for several months, Cheney and Goodman were last seen about 10:30 p.m. Sunday, leaving Philadelphia in a southerly direction.

An FBI agent said the station wagon apparently was burned Sunday night or before dawn Monday.

Goodman was one of 175 out-of-state volunteers who arrived in Mississippi over the weekend to take part in Negro voter registration and education projects after training at Oxford, Ohio.

Map shows where burned car (A) of three civil rights workers was found Tuesday by FBI in relation to Moss Point, Miss. (B), where the trio was arrested Sunday.

"Bloody Neshoba" by Mississippians for its history of settling feuds by gunfire.

The FBI clamped a lid on most of its investigation.

A Mississippi highway patrolman told a newsmen: "The FBI has taken over entirely."

Houses Searched
Highway patrol units conducted a house-to-house search late into the night. More patrolmen were expected today.

Missing are Andy Goodman, 20, and Michael Schwerner, 24, both of New York City, and James Cheney, 22, Negro from Meridian.

They were last seen Sunday night in Philadelphia after Cheney paid a $20 fine for speeding.

The White House announced that President Johnson had ordered Dulles to the state to coordinate the probe.

Dulles to See Officials
Dulles will confer with Gov. Paul B. Johnson, other top state officials and the FBI on the progress of the investigation.

Gov. Johnson, who earlier had told a news conference the highway patrol would search unrelentingly for the missing youths, said he would welcome Dulles.

Taylor Expected to Unify Military and Civilian Leadership

General Prepares to Fly To Viet Nam as Ambassador

WASHINGTON (AP) — Gen. Maxwell D. Taylor, who has never known defeat, flies to war-torn South Viet Nam soon to take over as U.S. ambassador. He is expected to provide a single tight and unified command over U.S. civilian and military efforts.

Lodge Not Candidate
In Saigon Tuesday night, Lodge declared: "I am not a candidate at all and I am not going back at all in order to connive at anything for myself. I cannot be drafted and there are no hidden meanings."

Scranton said he was delighted at Lodge's decision and added, "This is another big boost for this rapidly expanding campaign."

Johnson's selection of Taylor for the hot spot assignment won strong approval on Capitol Hill. Democrats and Republicans joined in predicting overwhelming Senate confirmation.

In South Viet Nam, Taylor will have under him two old friends in key spots—Lt. Gen. William C. Westmoreland as U.S. military commander and veteran diplomat U. Alexis Johnson as his political deputy.

No Magic Solution
Westmoreland, one of the most promising of the Army's younger generals, has been considered a "Taylor man" for about a decade. Westmoreland

3 Persons Die in Single Car Crash in Marquette County

BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS
The deaths of five persons, including three in a single car crash in Marquette County, have raised Wisconsin's 1964 highway toll to 441, compared with 369 on this date a year ago.

Lawrence C. Schliepp, 63, of rural Pardeeville in Columbia County; his wife, Ella, about 60, and their 9-year-old grandson, Charles Schliepp of Hartland, were killed Tuesday night when their car missed a curve, skidded several hundred feet and overturned on Highway 23, about a mile and a half west of Montello. Charles was the son of Mr. and Mrs. Lester Schliepp.

Michael Simon, 7, of rural Fond du Lac was killed late Tuesday when his bicycle was struck by a car on a road near his home. He was the son of Felix Simon.

Mrs. Eva Hein, 44, of Albany died when the car driven by her husband, William, 49, and another auto collided northeast of Brooklyn about 17 miles south of Madison Tuesday.

Author Frank Scully, 71, Dies of Coronary

PALM SPRINGS, Calif. (AP) — Frank Scully, who wrote with humor about the physical pain he experienced, is dead at 71. He had reportedly undergone more than 40 operations in the past 30 years.

His death Tuesday was attributed to a coronary occlusion.

Scully came to Hollywood as a writer for 20th Century-Fox Studios in 1932. He later was a columnist for the show business magazine Variety, as well as the author of books about illness, including "Fun in Bed."

Oshkosh Doctor Electrocuted In Bath Tub

Ernest Strakosch
Had Offices in Menasha Clinic

OSHKOSH — Dr. Ernest A. Strakosch, 2164 Point Comfort, Oshkosh, was accidentally electrocuted at 7:45 a.m. today while taking a bath at his home.

The dermatologist had undergone surgery about a month ago and was taking a sponge bath, according to Winnebago County Coroner Arthur Miller.

Miller said Mrs. Strakosch was adjusting a heat lamp for her husband and he reached up to help and was electrocuted when he touched the lamp.

There was about two inches of water in the tub, Miller said.

The coroner said a post-mortem examination confirmed that death was by electrocution.

Dr. Strakosch, 54, maintained offices in the Riverside Clinic in Menasha and the Washington Building in Oshkosh.

He was a native of Vienna, Austria, and came to the United States in 1930. He was graduated from the University of Minnesota and did work at the University of Iowa. He served in the U.S. Army during World War II and did medical research.

Dr. Strakosch was in private practice in Denver, Colo., until coming to Oshkosh in 1955.

He was president of the Lake Fiv Research Group seeking control of the Lake Winnebago lake fly problem.

Survivors include his widow, two daughters by a previous marriage, a step-daughter and his mother.

Funeral services will be at 1:30 p.m. Saturday at Seefeld Funeral Home. Burial will be in Denver.

Senate Approves $400,000 to Aid Lakes Fisheries

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Senate approved an amendment offered by Sen. Philip A. Hart, D-Mich., and added $400,000 to help rehabilitate Great Lakes fisheries Tuesday before approving an appropriation of more than $1 billion for the Interior Department and related agencies.

Hart told his colleagues that the Botulism E scare last year brought Great Lakes fishing to a virtual standstill.

The Senate also approved on a voice vote a treasury-post office appropriation of more than $6.2 billion.

Three amendments offered by Sen. William Proxmire, D-Wis., were rejected. One would have cut appropriations in the Coast Guard and post office by $15.8 million. Two others would have increased appropriations for the Internal revenue and custom services by a total of $7.7 million.

GOP Legislators Hit At John Doe Probes

Find Fault With Costs and Duration of Investigations

MADISON (AP)—Republican legislators leveled a barrage of criticism on Wisconsin's John Doe investigations from two fronts Tuesday.

Assemblyman Paul Alfonsi of Minocqua, the GOP floorleader in the house, charged that criminal investigators in the attorney general's office are "off on a tangent" of John Doe probes.

Aiming his criticism at the Madison investigation of alleged attempts to "frame" Gov. John W. Reynolds and other officials, Alfonsi said that the Legislature may have to spell out the duties of investigators.

Critical of Cost
"If every time a public official feels he is being picked on a John Doe is started, they'll be doing that constantly," Alfonsi said.

"Any person, Republican or Democrat, who may be aggrieved, will be requesting a John Doe," he added. "This could go on forever."

Alfonsi commented after the State Board on Government Operations criticized the length of investigations and cost of the John Doe investigation of crime in Wisconsin.

The board, while disbursing $251,179 in emergency appropriations, approved $59,608 in extra funds for the attorney general's office, with $44,200 going to pay the 1964-65 salaries of five agents employed in the state's new criminal investigation division.

Special Fees
The other $15,478 was approved for special legal fees, including $1,938 for Richard Cates, a special prosecutor in the John Doe probe begun by Reynolds, a Democrat, while he was attorney general.

The attorney general's office already has spent $35,000 in the investigation. Deputy Atty. Gen. Walter Cole said there were about 15 individual cases pending. He added it will take "four or five months at a minimum" to complete work in the investigation.

Assemblyman Thomas Barland, R-Eau Claire, said the original purpose of the John Doe was to look into alleged crime syndicate operations in Wisconsin.

"But it has been pretty well Turn to Page 6, Col. 1

Opportunity Awaits Today's College Grads

BY HAL BOYLE
NEW YORK (AP)—There is considerable criticism of young college graduates today. It boils down to a belief that they come into the business world spoiled. The general theory is that Joe College has the idea that the mere possession of a sheepskin with his name on it is an automatic passport to a cushy job and a lifetime of guaranteed security. If not downright ease. Perhaps college graduates today are a bit too brash as they leave the campus for the more competitive world of industry. Perhaps they do tend to gravitate toward the giant corporations because they feel safer there in the shelter of bigness than fighting for dominance in smaller and riskier firms. But it is easier to give good advice than it is to give good example. What middle-aged man, looking back at his own experience, can knock a young college man with a specialized skill for signing up with a big corporation—if that corporation is offering him anywhere from up to $600 or more a month, to start? The encouraging thing about young college graduates now is that they come out into a world which, by and large, has a place for them and wants them. If they are good in their fields, they can usually not only find a job—they can have their pick of several jobs. This gives youth self-confidence, and there is nothing youth needs more. How much more hopeful and assured they must feel than the youth of a generation ago! Then the college student clung desperately to his alma mater, and on graduation day he had to be thrown kicking and screaming into life. For the world then beyond the ivory tower was an economic jungle where nobody seemed to want him and there was nothing for him to do. Great Depression A great depression gripped the land, and the fearful young fellows found no industrial talent scouts standing in line to bid for his services. Marriage was virtually impossible because he could find no job to support himself, let alone a wife and children. Still vivid in my own memory is a fraternity bull session at the University of Missouri in the spring of 1932. Some of the graduating crop of that year were discussing how much of a guaranteed monthly income they'd settle for if they could sign up for it then and be sure of getting it the rest of their life. Some held out for $250 a month. Most were willing to settle for $200. That's how panicky they were—and how hungry for security, any form of economic security. We had to scrounge around and take whatever came along. In my own case, with two college degrees, the best I could do was to pass out handbills for my father that summer advertising bargains in his grocery store. It took me three years after graduation to get a job that paid $100 a month; it was 11 years before I worked up to $400 a month, the figure many college men start at now. Maybe Joe College, class of '64, is a bit brash and cocky about his prowess and his prospects. More power to him!

Foxes Whip Angels; C-Sox' Rodgers Pitches No-Hitter

Score 12 in Sixth for 13-3 Win

BY MIKE WALTER Fox Cities opened the floodgates in the sixth inning at Goodland Field Tuesday night and scored in double figures for the third straight game of their brief homestand in swamping Quad Cities, 13-3.

Sixteen Foxes paraded to the plate in the sixth, and 12 of them romped home on assorted walks, hits and enemy miscues.

Ed Hawkins was the immediate beneficiary of the outburst, winning his seventh game against a pair of losses. He yielded five hits and struck out eight Angels.

The Foxes leave Goodland Field today and open a 2-game set with Decatur tonight and Thursday. They close out the first round with games at Quincy Friday and Saturday.

The Foxes were faced with the possibility of succumbing to a no-hitter as Quad Cities starter Dick Evans gave up nothing that looked like a hit until one was out in the fifth.

Score in Third The Angels scored in the third when Terry Tackett's high fly dropped behind the right-field fence for a home run.

John Burrows coined a cheap hit—the Foxes' first—in the fifth, hitting a popup to short left which the left fielder and shortstop misplayed into a single.

The Foxes struck with a vengeance in the sixth. The first eight batters all reached base and all scored as Evans, whose wildness hadn't hurt him in the early innings, now found himself sinking deeper into the mire.

Dave May and Fred Ricco led off with bases on balls. Ron Perez, hoping for a 1- or 2-run inning, laid a bunt down the first base line. He was safe with a single when the Angels' second baseman failed to cover first quickly enough.

With the sacks loaded, John Sepich hit a popup down the Turn to Page 4, Col. 1

Orioles Take AL Lead With 7-Run Inning Against New York

Chance Pitches Angels to Seventh Straight Win

BY MURRAY CHASS Associated Press Sports Writer When Hollywood made the movie, "Angels in the Outfield," they weren't talking about Willie Smith. All of the Angels, however, are talking about him now.

The movie was a story of the Score in Third

The Angels scored in the third when Terry Tackett's high fly dropped behind the right-field fence for a home run.

John Burrows coined a cheap hit—the Foxes' first—in the fifth, hitting a popup to short left which the left fielder and shortstop misplayed into a single.

The Foxes struck with a vengeance in the sixth. The first eight batters all reached base and all scored as Evans, whose wildness hadn't hurt him in the early innings, now found himself sinking deeper into the mire.

Dave May and Fred Ricco led off with bases on balls. Ron Perez, hoping for a 1- or 2-run inning, laid a bunt down the first base line. He was safe with a single when the Angels' second baseman failed to cover first quickly enough.

Vaughn James Stars in Relief For Legion Club

FOX VALLEY LEGION LEAGUE (Southern Division)

Table with 4 columns: Team, W, L, Pct. Clintonville 9, Appleton East 4.

CLINTONVILLE — Relief pitcher Vaughn James hurled over four innings of 1-hit ball, Tuesday night, as the Clintonville Legion defeated Appleton East, 7-4.

Dan Richards collected three of the winners' 11 hits, including a double and a triple. Gary Tveten got the other extra-base blow, a double.

Dan Neumeier started for Clintonville, and was relieved by James in the fifth after yielding four runs on six hits.

Mike DeYoung had two of Appleton East's safeties. Clintonville—7, Appleton East—4.

heavenly kind of angels in the outfield of the Pittsburgh Pirates. But Smith, a Los Angeles Angel, has been a devil at bat.

The pitcher turned outfielder lashed two singles and a two-run homer Tuesday night, sparking Los Angeles to a 2-0 triumph over Washington. The victory was the seventh straight for the Angels, equalling the longest winning streak in the majors this season.

It also marked the second consecutive night Smith won games with his bat. His pinch-hit single the night before drove in the tie-breaking run in a 5-2 victory over the Senators.

The 25-year-old lefty was a pitcher until Manager Bill Rigney decided Smith deserved a trial as a hitter. Rigney now believes there's never been anyone more deserving.

In 11 Games Smith reached the majors last year with Detroit. He pitched in 11 games, gaining a 1-0 record and a 4.50 earned run average. The Angels acquired him April 29 in a trade for Julio Navarro.

As a southpaw hurler this season, Smith has a poor 1-4 record in 14 relief appearances and one start but has a respectable 2.81 ERA.

When Smith was inserted into the line-up for his hitting, Rigney didn't fool around. The manager placed him in right field and made him the No. 4 hitter. Smith's performance Tuesday night rocketed his average 40 points to .319. He has two home runs and 10 runs batted in for 47 times at bat.

His pinch hitting record is seven hits in 14 chances, with five of the hits coming in his last seven tries.

That's pretty heavenly in Rigney's book. Elsewhere in the AL Tuesday

Clinton Has Clinched Tie For Crown

Clinton's Norb Rodgers pitched a 7-inning no-hitter in the opening game of a doubleheader against Quincy Tuesday night. The C-Sox scored a 2-0 victory to clinch at least a share of the Midwest League's first-round title.

Quincy came back to win the second game, 5-3, to prevent Clinton from clinching the pennant.

Rodgers, a 19-year-old right-hander from the Virgin Islands, boosted his record to 7-2.

Braves Snap Losing Streak At 7 by Downing Dodgers

Rally for 3 in Seventh Frame; Tiefenauer Stars in Relief

MILWAUKEE (AP)—Knuckleball artist Bob Tiefenauer, a "forgotten man" in the Milwaukee Braves' bullpen, has made his move to regain the role of relief ace.

Tiefenauer blanked the Los Angeles Dodgers on one hit in the final three innings as the Braves snapped a seven-game losing streak with a 5-2 victory Tuesday night before a crowd of 16,459 at County Stadium.

The veteran right-hander, who began the season as Milwaukee's top reliever, boosted his record to 2-4 while posting his first victory since April 19.

A three-run uprising triggered by Hank Aaron's two-out double in the seventh inning and Tiefenauer's sparkling performance were all the ninth-place Braves needed to break out of their slump.

Pick Up Run The Dodgers picked up a run in the second on Frank Howard's 16th homer and another in the fifth on a pair of singles under a sacrifice.

The Braves broke into the scoring column with an unearned run in the fifth as pinch-hitter Eddie Mathews reached on an error and moved around on Ty Cline's infield hit, a sacrifice and an infield out.

The Braves left eight runners stranded in the first six innings and appeared doomed to their eighth straight setback as lefty Jim Brewer, the third of four Dodger pitchers, retired the first two batters in the seventh.

Mathews, who went to third after pinchhitting in the fifth, scored on a sacrifice fly by Little Chute.

Don Parker blasted a 3-run homer in the 8-run fifth and also hit two singles. Larry Koppitz added two doubles to the winners' 17-hit attack.

Jim VanderBoogaard started for Little Chute.

Reichardt Decides To Sign Contract With the Angels

UW Star's Father Announces Decision on Bonus Pact

STEVENS POINT (AP)—Rick Reichardt, the University of Wisconsin's hard-hitting outfielder who had been sought by almost every major league club, will sign with the Los Angeles Angels his father, Dr. F. W. Reichardt said this morning.

Reichardt has to fly to Los Angeles and sign the contract at 2:30 p.m., Dr. Reichardt said. The 21-year-old outfielder, Big Ten batting champion for the last two years, said he would not sign for a bonus of less than $100,000.

As a sophomore last year the Stevens Point, Wis., athlete finished a .429 average and then, in a feat unprecedented in modern times, he successfully defended his crown this season.

Reichardt came to Wisconsin on a football scholarship and Coach Milt Bruhn harbored hopes he would stay in school to complete his senior year. The 6-foot-3, 215 pounder caught 26 passes for 383 yards last year to lead the league in receiving.

Triumphs, 12-3, Over Wrightstown in Legion Play

KAUKAUNA — First place Kaukauna remained unbeaten in the northern division of the Fox Valley Legion League with a 12-3 thumping of Wrightstown Tuesday night.

Ed Szozda pitched for the winners, giving up just four hits and striking out 11.

Kaukauna scored six runs in the first inning off losing pitcher Terry Ferron, who allowed nine hits and fanned six.

Roger Aerts doubled across two of Wrightstown's runs in the third Bill Wierschke led off the fourth for the losers with a triple, but Szozda struck out the side.

Dennis Hilgenberg doubled home Kaukauna's 12th run in the seventh.

Mike Brown Signs Contract With Bears

CHICAGO (AP)—Speedy half-back Mike Brown of the University of Delaware signed Wednesday with the Chicago Bears.

The 195-pound Brown was the Bears' 10th draft choice. He led Delaware in rushing for three years. Last season he averaged 6.3 yards in 133 carries and scored 78 points to lead the Mid-Atlantic Conference.

Culp Hurls 1-Hitter To Give Phillies Split With Chicago

Gabrielson Gets Single in Sixth; Cincinnati, Giants, Divide Pair

BY DICK COUCH
Associated Press Sports Writer

Ray Culp has pitched his way back into the Philadelphia Phillies' starting rotation. All it took was a near replica of teammate Jim Bunning's perfect game.

A first inning base on balls and Len Gabrielson's sixth-inning single came between Culp and perfection, attained two days earlier by Bunning, as the 22-year-old right-hander blanked Chicago 9-0 in the second game of a doubleheader Tuesday night.

No other Cub reached base against Culp, whose early season troubles cost him a front-line job on Gene Mauch's leading pitching staff.

Mauch, thoroughly impressed after Culp's effort, announced that the National League-leading Phils will go with five starters henceforth.

"(With Bunning, (Dennis) Bennett, (Art) Mahaffey and (Chris) Short working so well, the manager said, "we just haven't been able to give Ray enough work. The doubleheaders enabled us to use him more. Now he's pitching like he did last year."

Had Sore Arm

Culp, a $100,000 bonus baby five years ago, won 14 games in 1963, his rookie season, and led Philadelphia pitchers with 176 strikeouts. He reported with a sore arm this spring, dropped five of six decisions and found himself in the bullpen.

But three victories—including the one-hitter—and two complete games in his last three appearances have vaulted the young Texan back into the Phils' pennant plan.

The second game victory gave the Phils a split of the twi-nighter. Chicago took the opener 2-0 on Dick Ellsworth's five-hitter.

Second place San Francisco divided with Cincinnati, winning 4-0 before bowing 5-4 in 11 innings. Pittsburgh defeated New York 5-1; Milwaukee beat Los Angeles 5-2 and St. Louis nipped Houston 5-4.

Culp said after the game he relied mainly on his fastball against the Cub hitters.

"I had arm trouble late last year and early this season because I threw too much breaking stuff," he recalled.

Hit Surprised Him

He said Gabrielson's hit, a golfed shot off a low fast ball, surprised him. "I jammed him down and in, and he sliced it to right."

Culp wasn't ecstatic about his performance. "We're on top and I'm not a winning pitcher. If I was 10-5 with this club I'd have something to be happy about."

Phillie hitters were beaming after their 17-hit supporting role in the second game victory. Wes Covington homered, Richie Allen cracked three doubles and John Hernandez had four hits, including a pair of doubles.

The opener was another story. Ellsworth breezed to his ninth victory in 15 decisions. Ernie Banks singled home one run and rookie Billy Ott doubled in the other.

Marty Keough's lead-off homer in the 11th inning earned Cincinnati a split with San Francisco and kept the Giants 1½ games behind Philadelphia. Jim Hart's eighth inning homer, his second of the game, had pulled the Giants even.

Marichal Wins

Juan Marichal scattered seven singles in the opener and ran his record to 9-3. The Giants scored all their runs in the third inning. Duke Snider and Jose Pagan singled home two each.

Dick Schofield drove in four runs, three on a homer, and Vern Law pitched his fourth straight victory as the Pirates handed the Mets their 11th loss in 12 games.

Rusty Staub's second error of the seventh inning allowed Tim McCarver to score St. Louis' winning run after John Bateman's homer had lifted the Colts into a 4-4 tie in the top of the inning.

They'll Do It Every Time

Fox Tractor, Zwicker '9s' Will Collide

Meet Monday For Sole Lead In 'International'

MILWAUKEE (AP) — After snapping a seven-game losing streak, the Milwaukee Braves deserved a feast. And they got one.

The Braves tore into servings of barbecued spareribs with extra relish Tuesday night after breaking out of their slump with a 5-2 victory over the Los Angeles Dodgers.

Everyone managed a smile in the clubhouse which had been filled with gloom for a week. Even President John McHale paid a surprise visit to congratulate his charges.

"Victory is sweet," McHale said as he greeted Manager Bobby Bragan. "I hope we can go on to win 20 in a row."

Nibbling on a rib, Bragan commented: "We don't get this dish very often—just when we win."

One of the most encouraging signs noted by Bragan was Ed Die Mathews' sixth homer of the season—a cushion blast in the eighth. Mathews was inserted into the lineup as a pinchhitter and stayed around to deliver his long pokes. The big slugger had been benched Sunday.

"It looks as if the rest might have done him some good," Bragan said. "And I'll need all the left-handed bats I can muster against Don Drysdale Wednesday so Eddie will go back to third and Denny Menke will shift back to short."

Woody Woodward, who played short with Menke at third, will return to the bench as Mathews goes back to third. However, Felipe Alou, a converted center-fielder, will remain at first base.

"We're well protected at center with Ty Cline," Bragan explained. "Ty can field as well as anyone."

Wally Moore, who played short with Menke at third, will return to the bench as Mathews goes back to third. However, Felipe Alou, a converted center-fielder, will remain at first base.

"We're well protected at center with Ty Cline," Bragan explained. "Ty can field as well as anyone."

Wally Moore, who played short with Menke at third, will return to the bench as Mathews goes back to third. However, Felipe Alou, a converted center-fielder, will remain at first base.

Orioles Beat Yanks to Take League Lead night, Baltimore nipped New York 9-8, Chicago blanked Boston 2-0, Minnesota whipped Cleveland 6-2 and Detroit trampled Kansas City 9-3 after losing 2-1.

Smith's homer in the eighth inning broke up a scoreless pitching duel between the Angels' Dean Chance and Bennie Daniels. Chance wound up tossing a four-hitter for his fifth victory against three defeats. The shutout reduced his ERA to 1.91.

Strike for 7

The Yankees appeared well on their way to an easy victory when the Orioles struck for seven runs after two were out in the eighth. Pinch hitter Charley Lau ignited the comeback with a single and climaxed it with a run-scoring double.

Brooks Robinson and Willie Kirkland each singled home two runs in the inning. When it was all over, Baltimore was in first place one-half game ahead of New York. Elston Howard, Mickey Mantle and Roger Maris homered for the losers.

Fred Talbot scattered eight hits for the White Sox. Pete Ward homered, and J. C. Martin knocked in Chicago's second inning.

Harmon Killebrew smashed his 23rd homer in the Twins' triumph. Jim Kaat hurled a five-hitter, losing a shutout in the ninth on Bob Chance's two-run single. Kaat singled home one of Minnesota's three runs in the second.

The Tigers salvaged a split of their doubleheader with the Athletics behind the hitting of Dick McAuliffe and Al Kaline. McAuliffe connected for a grand slam homer in the eighth while Kaline batted in three runs, two with a single in the second.

Rocky Colavito's two-run single in the fifth inning won the first game for Kansas City. His hit was only the second of Joe Sparrma, who was making his first major league appearance.

TO ACHIEVE MAXIMUM EXTENSION THROUGH THE BALL AND THEREBY PRODUCE STRAIGHTER SHOTS, THE LEFT ARM SHOULD REMAIN STRAIGHT FOR AS LONG AS POSSIBLE AFTER IMPACT—UNTIL THE RIGHT HAND FORCES IT TO BREAK NEAR THE FINISH.

THIS KEEPS THE CLUBFACE ON TARGET LONGER AND PREVENTS ANY CONTROL-ROBBING CLIPPING ACTION THAT RESULTS FROM THE LEFT ARM BREAKING TOO SOON AFTER THE HIT.

BEN HOGAN IS THE GREATEST EXAMPLE OF LEFT ARM EXTENSION. HIS ARM BREAKS ONLY SLIGHTLY AT THE VERY FINISH.

Frailing Hurls 1-Hitter as Marion Wins

MARION—Ken Frailing pitched the Marion Legion baseball team to a 3-0 victory over Wauwega-Fremont Tuesday night. Southpaw Frailing allowed only one hit—a double by Jack Kapitke, his mound opponent, in the second—and walked six while striking out 19. Kapitke gave up only four hits, walked three and fanned 13. Marion scored all of its runs in the fifth as the visitors had Legion defeated Berlin, 10-1, fielding woes. Tom Jones sin- gling and Bill Zimdars was safe off losing hurler Miller. The on Kapitke's bad throw. Ted lone hit off Dillie was a single Gerbig sacrificed the runners in the third.

Frailing was walked intentional- ly to load the bases. The next batter popped out. But Dick Suehring hit to third baseman Jim Baehman, who threw past first base, one run scoring. On the same play, catcher Don Wangelin threw the ball over the second baseman's head, and two more runs scored. Frailing and Tom Branden- burg both doubled.

Mayville Scores 10-1 Victory Over Berlin

MAYVILLE—Tom Dillie hurled a 1-hitter and fanned 16 batters in a 7-inning contest, Mayville pounded out 10 hits, fielding woes. Tom Jones sin- gling and Bill Zimdars was safe off losing hurler Miller. The on Kapitke's bad throw. Ted lone hit off Dillie was a single Gerbig sacrificed the runners in the third.

right-field line which landed on the chalk mark. One run scored and another came home shortly after as Burrows' fly to center was misplayed by Jim Sollami.

Hawkins got an RBI as he watched four bad pitches sail by and Bob Matias drove Sepich and Burrows home with a line drive to left-center. John Matias sacrificed the runner to second and third and May, up for the second time in the frame, bounced a single up the middle to send Hawkins across. Evans issued the fourth free pass of the inning to Rico and departed to the showers in favor of Bob Henneman.

The reliever walked the first two to face him to force in one. Jim Jankow was placed on the run, threw a wild pitch for another, and watched as Sepich drove in his second, third and fourth runs of the night with a long triple to right. Henneman, Hiebert, Quad Cities shortstop, then retired the last two batters.

The Foxes scored again in the seventh without benefit of a hit.

as John Matias walked and scored on an error by second baseman Norm Miller. Miller drove in the other two Quad Cities runs in the eighth with a towering homer to the right of the scoreboard in right after Hawkins had walked Henneman.

FOX TALES: The Foxes have been getting excellent mileage on their base hits recently, scoring 36 runs in the last three games on a total of only 21 safeties. Hawkins gave up only five hits last night, but four of them went for extra bases.

General Manager Ralph Mueller has announced that catcher Ted Richardson has been placed on the suspended list. Richardson has been dissatisfied with his role as a substitute and decided to call it quits.

The reliever walked the first two to face him to force in one. Jim Jankow was placed on the run, threw a wild pitch for another, and watched as Sepich drove in his second, third and fourth runs of the night with a long triple to right. Henneman, Hiebert, Quad Cities shortstop, then retired the last two batters.

Mira Passes Give Receivers Trouble

Trull Appears to Have Edge Over Claridge as West Starter

BUFFALO, N.Y. (AP)—The form in the fourth-annual game between East and West teams in Saturday's All-America football game, which have a problem that can be summed up in one word: Of the East's pass-receivers haven't been able to hang on to the low, bullet passes of Miami's George Mira. The West, armed with new lines Mira, named as the tenative starting quarterback for the East, created a problem for the nation's top collegiate players of 1963 chosen to pergerous runner, hurled a much softer pass that was gathered in more often. Meanwhile, the East's third-quarterback, Boston College's Jack Concannon, sat out the practice with a pulled left hamstring muscle. He is a doubtful starter. On another of the University of Buffalo's fields, where the West drilled, Coach Bob Devaney of Illinois passed out new plays and then perspired as his players sought to carry out their assignments. They finally began to click, but not until near the end of the workout. Included were plays featuring Coach Pete Elliott of Illinois decided to work on the East's aerial game. He had Mira roll-out for passes to the side-passer in the last two seasons. The West, armed with new lines Mira, named as the tenative starting quarterback for the East, created a problem for the nation's top collegiate players of 1963 chosen to per-are the very neatest and most original of all. These five will win the Hocus Pocus magic sets.

Here's how to prepare your entry: Clip out the six pieces in the picture above and fit them together to form a baseball player. Paste them that way on a sheet of paper or a postal card. Color the player with paints or crayons. Print your name, age and address beneath the picture. Add any decorations you consider neat and original, using coloring materials, cutouts or other methods. Address your entry to Cappy Dick's Midweek Contest at the Appleton Post-Crescent and mail it before midnight of day after tomorrow.

Names of the prize winners will be published here and their prizes will be sent to them by mail. Judges' decisions will be final. All entries become Cappy Dick's property; none can be returned.

K of C Picnic on Father's Day

Dad Has His Turn for presents in the morning, but in the afternoon it was his time to 'shell out.' Frank Kamps, above, places a few coins in the outstretched hand of his daughter, Kathy. Donald Lightfoot looks on. After enjoying one of the rides at the Knights of Columbus picnic at Telulah Park Sunday, Amy Seaver is ready to go into the arms of her father, Gordon Seaver.

Father's Day is especially nice when mother is also able to enjoy the festivities. The Knights of Columbus Father Fitzmaurice Council makes sure mother has her day too at their annual Father's Day picnic at Telulah Park Sunday.

The festivities began at noon. The K of C Ladies auxiliary operated the food concession and there were ponies and rides for the children.

Serving as chairman of the annual event was Ken Beining. Fred Biesecker assisted as co-chairman.

Fall Tie Fashions Colorful

The neckwear Fall fashion forecast for 1964 is the brightest in many years!

The stylists and colorists burned the midnight oil in Aladdin's lamp to create the color magic for blending with new iridescent tones in Fall suits. Men's clothing will show a heavy preponderance of iridescent colors which are actually shades of one color highlighting shades of another. Rich blues will be complemented with golds, olives and browns, giving a mellowness to colors which reflect one on the other.

Beyond the blue - contrasting blends, there is also a new development with brown mirroring various shades of olive, bronze and blue. Stripes are very strong with the trend to wider spaced stripes in brighter colors. These wider spaced stripes go well with the striped shirt trend with the iridescent suits.

Focal Points

Under-knots or positioned motifs will be shown in deep tones, and these make interesting focal points in men's attire.

The 2 1/2" wide tie will occupy top spot for Fall. Some repps, particularly those in the traditional or Ivy league groups, will be at 2 1/2" to 2 3/4".

There is a slight trend toward prints. A sprinkling of prints are indicated that neckwear business is offered in various lines, less than two hundred and these are starting to arouse twenty million dollars at retail some interest. Jacquards and for 1964.

rougher fabrics are also playing a role. There is a definite dress-up feeling at all age levels—more

Early trends indicate that this year's teen-agers than ever before will be the biggest of all neck-wearing ties, and the new iridescent colors on new fabrics, full Spring, where the industry in interesting patterns will do much to further stimulate this ahead of the previous year, it, neckwear interest.

Many Cold Showers Halt Your Air Conditioning

Winter colds and sniffles are over and done with, but summer has its own brand of health hazards and — like the goblins — some of them may "git you ef you don't watch out."

Sunburn, hay fever, poison ivy, insect stings, heat stroke, tourist's tummy, or any one of half a dozen other common complaints can convince you quickly enough that good health and hot weather don't necessarily go together.

Fortunately, however, a few precautions, keeping reasonably comfortable when the humidity soars, and careful attention to the diet will get you through the hot weather in good physical shape.

Beat the Heat Hints
If beating the heat is your major problem, here are a few hints:

Choose summer clothing for weight and weave. You're better off with some porous fabric which permits the free circulation of air. Wear loose-fitting togs. It isn't true, incidentally, that dark-colored clothes make you hotter than lighter shades.

Too many cold showers may halt the flow of perspiration — your personal air-conditioning system. Don't overdo it. Likewise, the chill from standing directly in front of a fan may make you more uncomfortable. A glass of water or other cool liquid every hour is a much better idea.

Watch Summer Diet
You don't need to be a mad dog or an Englishman, but you should get moderate exercise even in the hottest weather to maintain good circulation.

As for meals, it's perfectly normal for the appetite to fall off in hot weather, but try to avoid cutting out too much protein. Most cold meats are as high in protein as a roast just out of the oven. Cottage cheese and skim milk are other foods that are both "light" and protein-rich.

Since eating — that is, digestion of food — generates some heat, the largest meal can be in the evening when the temperature is lower, but stick to a three-meals-a-day schedule.

If the total volume of food you consume is less, it stands to reason that you might be getting fewer vitamins and other essential nutrients than you need. It's a good idea to ask your doctor what he thinks about taking a multiple vitamin supplement as a sort of "health insurance."

Use First Aid Kit
On second thought, there's no parture. If you wear glasses, point in piecemeal protection take along a lens prescription against such minor emergencies. A new traveling medical breakage.

Methodist Church Has Annual Picnic

The First Methodist Church held its annual picnic at 12:30 p.m. Sunday at City Park.

MMM committee members, who planned the picnic included Mr. and Mrs. E. Pete Reynolds, Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Chamberlain, Mr. and Mrs. Harvey Harding, Mr. and Mrs. Melvin Ruth, Mr. and Mrs. George Schumacher and Mr. and Mrs. Carl Seeger.

kit combines remedies for a variety of everyday ills from headache, to diarrhea, to minor cuts and scrapes in a single package. Add sterile gauze, adhesive, and scissors and you have it made.

Going camping? If you'll be tramping over rough terrain, then sturdy walking shoes are in order to avoid ankle sprains. Flame-proof yours and the children's clothing if you'll be cooking on an open campfire.

Travelers headed for junkets abroad would do well to have complete physical — and dental — check-ups, as well as the usual round of "shots" before departure. If you wear glasses, point in piecemeal protection take along a lens prescription against such minor emergencies. A new traveling medical breakage.

Laundry Bag

For a young feminine female, make a delicate, personalized laundry bag for her little garments. Its frills and lace will delight her and it's meant to be displayed, not hidden.

Materials needed: One yard of dacron marquisette, 48-inches wide; eight yards of nylon lace edging, 1/4 inch wide; contrasting thread; 1/4 yards of nylon satin ribbon to match contrasting thread, 3/4 inch wide.

To Cut: Fold Marquisette in half so selvages meet. All pieces are cut double. For bag, cut two pieces 24 inches by 17 inches. Since the fabric is 48 inches wide, it will measure 24 inches when folded. Cut bag piece double and then cut along folded edge to make two pieces. Then cut six strips from selvages to fold two inches wide (giving you six strips each 48 inches long). The rest of the fabric will be used as backing for the monogram.

To Make Ruffles: Join strips so you have two long ones each of 143 inches (1 inch short of 4 yards). An edge is trimmed with lace edging and is applied in one of two ways. If you have an automatic sewing machine, set it for a very fine zigzag stitch. Place edge of lace over raw edge of ruffle, leaving 1/4 inch seam allowance under lace. Using contrasting thread, stitch along lace edge with embroidery-stitch. Then trim raw edge under lace close to the stitching.

If you have a straight-stitch machine, use narrow hemmer attachment which sews on lace, and also hems raw edge of ruffle in one operation. After lace is attached, set machine for long straight-stitch and stitch across top length of strip on other raw edge. Pull bottom thread to form ruffle. Or, an easier method is to use ruffler attachment. Do this to both strips. Each finished ruffle should measure 37-inches or 2 1/2 times smaller than unruffled strip.

Monogram: Trace monogram on double layer of marquisette. Place underneath one of bag pieces and baste. Straight-stitch all around outline of monogram. For zigzag machine, embroider over this stitching line with contrasting thread. Cut away excess backing fabric close to stitching. For straight stitch thread chart. For your copy of

Play Goo Sticks to Carpeting

BY ROGER C. WHITMAN

Q: At holiday time, one of the children accidentally left some ceiling putty on my nylon carpet, but was slightly dirty in this pet. It ran down in the fibers and I tried to remove the excess, but still have a lot that would not come loose by picking at it. I haven't used anything on this as yet. What do you suggest? I want to remove this at carpet cleaning time.

A: I suggest the same treatment as for removing gum on carpets: Apply an ice cube to the material to harden it, then scrape it off carefully with a dull knife. To remove any stubborn residue, try soap and hot water.

water or a nonflammable cleaning or spot remover, applied according to label directions.

Q: Our living room ceiling has never been painted. I have swept it regularly, but it is beginning to look very dirty in a pattern of lines, like where the beams might be. Could we paint over this if all loose dirt is off?

We did paint over a bedroom ceiling which had a coat of paint on it. It was slightly dirty in the same pattern of lines. And now it does seem as if we can see a shadow of dirt lines showing through the second coat.

A: I suspect the ceilings are under a cold attic which is not insulated at the floor. The dark marks occur because the ceiling plaster becomes chilled, causing condensation when damp warm house air comes in contact with it. Dust is absorbed by the damp plaster along the beams which does not dry as quickly as the plaster between beams. I suggest you install insulation on the attic floor, vaporproof barrier on the attic floor.

Thorough vacuuming of the ceiling before painting should be adequate.

Q: We built our large split level four years ago. It faces west and has wide, projecting eaves. In severe winter weather we have two troublesome areas: Where a planter projects under the eave and where a large bow window projects under the eave. Snow or ice melts on the roof and gets under the shingles. Then it either runs in the recessed light in the bow window or along the planter wall. We have installed heating wires in the insulated at the floor. The dark marks occur because the ceiling plaster becomes chilled, causing condensation when damp warm house air comes in contact with it. Dust is absorbed by the damp plaster along the beams which does not dry as quickly as the plaster between beams. I suggest you install insulation on the attic floor, vaporproof barrier on the attic floor.

A: If possible, ventilation to carry off heat escaping from the house into the attic area, providing vent openings at the eaves.

Miss Bernegger Honored at Showers, Parties

NEW LONDON—Miss Brenda Mary Bernegger was honored recently at several pre-nuptial parties. Miss Bernegger is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Bernegger, route 1, New London, will become the bride of David D. Wenberg at 11 a.m. Saturday. Mr. Wenberg's parents are Mr. and Mrs. Herbert B. Wenberg, DePere.

A round-the-clock shower was given at the home of Mrs. Gary Bernegger, route 1, New London, May 18. Hostesses were Mrs. Bernegger, Mrs. Ervin Helms and Mrs. Orville DeGroff.

Hintz's Supper Club, Merrill, was the setting for a dinner party and shower May 20. The party was given by the bride-elect's fellow teachers at Rib Mountain School, Wausau.

A kitchen shower was given at May 23 by Mrs. Gerald Huettl, Mrs. Francis Huettl, Mrs. Bernard Brandner and Mrs. Lowell Prellwitz at the Huettl home, 212 W. Pine St.

Miss Myrtle Sambs and Miss Margaret Sambs were co-hostesses at a linen shower May 24 at their home, route 2, Hortonville.

edges. To prevent the melting ice backing up under roof shingles, a three-foot wide strip of flashing should be installed along the edge of the roof, along the eaves, under the roof shingles. I suggest sending 10 cents (no stamps) to Superintendent of Documents, Washington, D. C. 20402, for a copy of "Prevention of Cold Weather Roof Leaks", containing specific remedies.

Protective Mother Told to Avoid Awkward Promise

BY DR. EVE JONES

Dear Dr. Jones: I thought you'd like to know how I settled a neighborhood problem. One little 3-year-old girl around here likes to bite everyone, including my 5-year-old daughter. When I complained to the mother, she said to me, "Well, your little sweetheart must taste good to her."

That got me so mad that I instinctively replied, "Well, you'd better rescue your child before the next time she bites mine, or else I'm going to find out how your girl tastes. And I warn you, I have very strong jaws." That was that. The little girl now stays far away from mine. Dear Dr. Jones: I thought you'd like to know how I settled a neighborhood problem. One little 3-year-old girl around here likes to bite everyone, including my 5-year-old daughter. When I complained to the mother, she said to me, "Well, your little sweetheart must taste good to her."

I can't recommend your method. What if the mother didn't care and you actually were forced to make the decision to hurt another child? I think it would have been better if you had told your daughter the other girl is too young for her to play with and to stay away from her or tell her to go away. Dear Dr. Jones: When my 7-year-old son has a friend over to play, his 9-year-old brother always horns in. I wouldn't mind if the three played nicely together. But the older boy usually manages to take the friend away, so that it ends up that the younger boy is by himself. Also, when the 9-year-old has a friend over, he won't let his younger brother near them. I don't think it's very fair, but I don't know how to handle it. Whenever possible, I try to have one child visit somewhere else, if the other child is having a guest over here. But I'm not sure that's the right way, either.

As Foe, Bats Carry Rabies; As Friend, Eat Insects

How blind is "blind as a bat?" into the wires regularly. Bats, the only mammals which have the power of true flight, also have the unusual ability to navigate in the dark by what aviators might call "instrument flying."

A warning about bats, which are practically world-wide in distribution, has been issued. These strange animals can be both a friend to man and a dangerous enemy. The bat is a friend which devours literally hundreds of harmful insects daily, but is a potential enemy which can transmit communicable disease, notably the extremely painful and often fatal rabies virus.

No Need for Eyes Scientists who have studied animals of this type, variously described as "flying mouse" in this country and "flying fox" in Java (where it sometimes attains a wingspread of nearly five feet), say it has what amounts to a built-in radar system and really doesn't need eyesight for navigation.

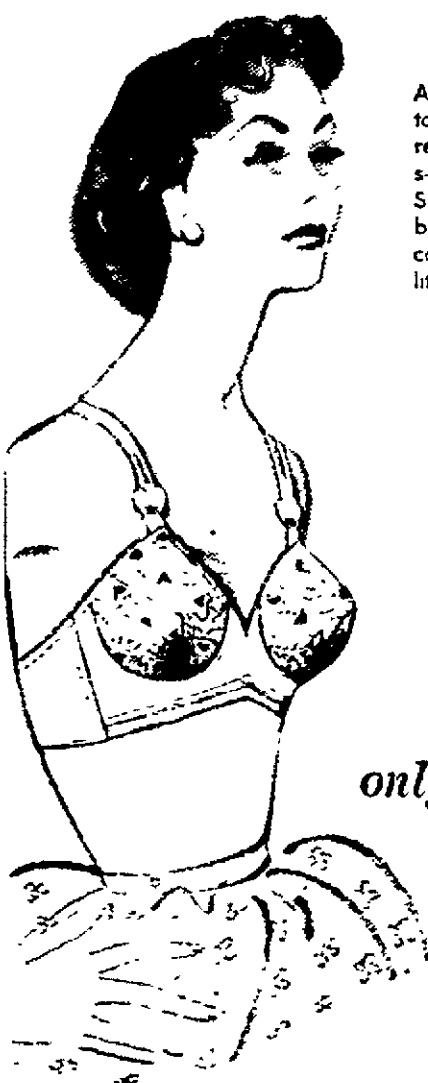

It isn't radar in the true sense, of course, but what a bat does have is a unique hearing ability and an ultrasonic cry which makes it possible for this creature to "fly blind." As long ago as 1794, Lazzaro Spallanzani had demonstrated that bats depend on hearing more than sight for navigation. When bats are set free in a room broken up by dangling dry wires, they can successfully off the wires until their ears comes with it. Respray before they are covered. Then they blunder wearing.

But bats have no place in your home or other places frequented by humans. They may carry the deadly rabies virus, and must be controlled.

Canvas Sneakers Spray-on starch helps keep canvas sneakers clean between washings. Spray freshly-washed sneakers evenly and allow to room broken up by dangling dry wires. After each wearing, brush wires, they can successfully off the starch and the dirt avoid the wires until their ears comes with it. Respray before they are covered. Then they blunder wearing.

Quench Thirst With Peachy Ginger Fizz

In the midst of a summer's heat wave, one of the high lights of the day can be a few moments relaxation in the cool of your porch or patio. And if friends drop in, this occasion naturally calls for an icy summer beverage.

You can have fun and surprise your friends as well, if you create your own thirst-quenching concoctions. Guests and your family will find them especially delightful.

Suggested here are several refreshing beverage ideas. They are so tempting that you'll want to try them all.

An ingredient found in each is either bottled lemon or bottled lime juice. In the summer, and all year round, these bottled juices are handy items to keep in your refrigerator.

Each of these drinks also calls for simple syrup. You merely boil a mixture of 1 cup water on juice and 2 tablespoons simple syrup with a small amount Store it in your refrigerator for quick preparation of cold beverages.

Ginger Fizz

Combine 1 package (12 oz.) frozen peaches, partially defrosted and drained; ¼ teaspoon nutmeg; ¼ teaspoon ginger; ¼ cup bottled lemon juice and ¼ cup simple syrup in a blender until smooth. Pour into 4 tall glasses and fill with chilled gingerale.

Lemon Velvet

Dip two generous scoops of Almond Crunch Ice Cream (or Vanilla Ice Cream) into a tall, chilled glass. Add ¼ cup bottled lemon juice and ¼ cup simple syrup. Fill the glass with cold gingerale.

Pineapple Chiller

Combine 1 package (13½ oz.) frozen pineapple chunks, ¼ cup bottled lemon juice, 2 tablespoons simple syrup, ¼ cup bottled lime juice, and rum flavoring in a blender. Pour over ice cube in 4 tumblers or lowball glasses. Garnish with pineapple spear and cherry.

Lemony Soda

Mix 2 tablespoons bottled lemon juice and 2 tablespoons simple syrup with a small amount of vanilla, chocolate or fruit ice cream. Add 1 cup chilled soda water and 1 scoop of ice cream.

Insisting on Separate Checks Solution to Awkward Situation

BY ANN LANDERS

DEAR ANN LANDERS: I am a man in my 50's who has never without her.

What I want to know is this: Would it be proper for me to tell my wife's sister (after the funeral of course) that she is welcome to go through my wife's belongings and take whatever she wishes?

I have a 1962 Chevrolet and am a good driver. In exchange for the chauffeur service the women have agreed to pay all the car expenses plus 25 dollars each.

At first it seemed like a fine idea but now something is bothering me. We will undoubtedly be having most of our meals together. Since I will be the only man present, I will always be handed the check. Please tell me how to handle the situation.

These women are supposed to pay for their own meals but I would feel uncomfortable accepting their money right there in the restaurant. — Thinking Ahead

DEAR ANN LANDERS: Have an understanding in advance that one of the ladies will insist on separate checks when the waitress takes your orders. This is infinitely simpler than trying to figure out who ate what. It will also save you the embarrassment of collecting their money at the table.

DEAR ANN LANDERS: This is a difficult letter to write, but I need your advice.

My wife is ill with an incurable blood disease. The doctors say she can't live more than another five or six weeks. Our son is 14 and our daughter 16. We are all trying to be brave and help each other.

My wife has a sister of whom she is very fond. This sister lives out of town and has been here off and on for months. I don't know what we would have done crowd. The real problem, however, is her father.

Norma always was "her dad's girl" but this past year it has become worse than ever. When he leaves the house in the morning he never fails to kiss Norma good-bye. Yesterday he was running late and dashed upstairs to give her a good-bye kiss. I was right at the door but he forgot to kiss me.

The minute he comes home his first words are, "Where's Norma?" I half suspect she enjoys putting me in the shade. I am hurt and embarrassed that others might notice it. Should I talk to him — or to her? — Second.

Dear Second: Don't talk to either one of them. Be pleased that your daughter and her father have a warm relationship.

Every girl's first sweetheart is her dad, and there is bound to be some sense of competition between a girl and her mother.

As Norma becomes seriously interested in boys the daddy's girl bit will be less intense. So relax and live through this stage as you lived through the others.

Ann Landers will be glad to help you with your problems. Send them to her in care of this newspaper enclosing a stamped, self-addressed envelope.

the hand was over. "How could I tell you had the ace of spades?" he asked his partner. "I didn't know about three rounds of trumps. I just made sure of two rounds."

The fact is that East lost his nerve. There's very little chance to defeat four hearts if South has the ace of spades so East must just play on the assumption that his partner will turn up with strong spades topped by the ace.

When one of the defenders holds A-x-x of trumps and the other defender holds x-x, it is often necessary for the defender to play low trumps from both hands on the first trick.

Then they can draw two more rounds of trumps no matter which defender is allowed to win the next defensive trick.

Daily Question

Partner opens with one heart, and the next player passes. You hold: S 4; H K 10 7 3; D K 7 6 4; C 10 8 3 2. What do you say?

Answer: Bid two hearts. You have maximum value for this raise, so if partner makes any try for game you will accept the invitation.

GIRL WITH HAT PROBLEM

Dear Louise: I have been in the north where I am going in September, the girls must wear hats to Sunday dinner. This presents a problem since I live in the sunny south where hats just aren't worn. I haven't the slightest idea what I would look good with my page boy hair-do. I would like to get something becoming yet not too expensive. Can you help?

Louise Davis Answers:

Surely there must be millinery departments or shops in your area. Any stores selling hats knows the fashion trends. The personnel are trained to know what is becoming for the individual customers. I suggest that you first watch the newspapers and fashion magazines for design, color and fabrics, then start shopping. I am sure that you can rely on the sales employees who would be familiar with the kind of hats that are being worn in the north.

Teaching of Evolution Gets Spotlight Again

Minister Petitions for Amendments to Outlaw Subject in Arizona Schools

PHOENIX, Ariz. (AP)—Thirty-nine years ago a jury was asked to decide whether the theory of evolution should be taught in the schools of Tennessee.

This November, half a million voters may decide whether the Darwinian theory should be taught in the schools of Arizona.

The famed "monkey trial" of 1925 was staged in the Tennessee hamlet of Dayton with a young biology teacher — John Scopes — the central figure. Scopes deliberately violated the anti-evolution law to force the court test.

For Arizona, the trial may be staged in voting booths. Behind the test is the Rev. Aubrey Moore, a Southern Baptist minister who once said, "Either God is a liar or evolution is a liar."

Proposed Amendment
Moore is circulating petitions to place on the general election ballot a proposed state constitutional amendment to prohibit the teaching of evolution in public schools.

He needs 54,876 signatures to bring the measure before the voters.

Moore says he has 7,000 petitions in circulation and expects at least one-half to be returned. Each petition contains the name of 20 signatures.

The Moore proposal already has driven a wedge into the ranks of the Arizona clergy.

Forty-three Methodist ministers and Rabbi Albert Plotkin of Temple Beth Israel, Phoenix, issued a letter attacking a ban on the teaching of evolution.

Tennessee Jury
The Tennessee jury of four decades ago found Scopes guilty and fined him $100.

Moore's proposal calls for a fine of $100 to $500 with automatic revocation of a violator's teaching certificate.

Arizona's fight over evolution started last fall when Harold Bates of Phoenix, member of the Nazarene Church, appeared before the State Board of Education.

He said schools were using science books that offered contents in conflict with the Bible. He insisted if evolution could not be barred, then teachers should take the initiative in excluding from classes all children whose parents consider the material objectionable.

The board asked State Atty. Gen. Robert Pickrell if it had the power to prohibit instructions in evolution.

Pickrell said a decision should be reached through a contested court case.

AMC to Try Fast Model Changeover

MILWAUKEE (AP)—American Motors said today that the company plans the fastest new-model Rambler changeover in history at the Milwaukee and Kenosha plants this summer, with nearly 9,000 more than the present total of employees called back for the start-up.

F. W. Bernitt, manufacturing vice president of AMC at Detroit, said that after the annual two-week closing for vacations and change-over, the Milwaukee body plant will resume work the week of Aug. 3 on a two-shift basis, with 7,500 employees—double the present workforce—on the job.

At Kenosha, two-shift operations will resume the same later. Present Kenosha employment is 10,100.

'Road Back' Is Difficult For Profumo, Miss Keeler

Former War Minister Serves Without Pay, Aids the Poor

BY TOM OCHILTREE

LONDON (AP)—"I have been guilty of a grave misdemeanor I cannot tell you of my deep remorse."

With these words, a year ago this week, a British war minister whose feet had seemed to be on the road to the prime ministry acknowledged that he had lied in the House of Commons about his associations with a red-haired play girl.

It was the public beginning of a scandal which rocked the British government, spawned black headlines all over the world, resulted in judicial proceedings and investigations, and wrecked lives.

And the end may not yet have been written: It may cost the Conservative party heavily in parliamentary elections this fall.

Those who played roles in the lightning-charged drama were giants of a sort—modern equivalents of characters in an ancient Greek tragedy.

Where are they now?

One of them can be found in London's East End. There, a neatly dressed man with a modulated voice and a pleasant, sideways smile gives advice and help to the poor.

This is John D. Profumo, 49-year-old former war minister tumbled from power because he lied to the House of Commons by denying his association with party girl Christine Keeler. Once Profumo seemed likely to become Britain's prime minister one day. He is still listed in the Who's Who for 1964.

Profumo is engaged in the slow task of repairing his life. He spends five days a week, eight hours a day in Toynbee Hall, a settlement house, and draws no salary for his social work.

His black day was June 4, 1963, when he wrote his letter of resignation to Harold Macmillan, then prime minister. In it he said he had deceived the House of Commons in March. Gravely embarrassed politically, Macmillan accepted the resignation at once.

Profumo Censured

The House censured Profumo and after that he dropped out of sight for months, spending much of that period in an isolated shooting and fishing lodge in Scotland. His road back has been hard but Christine Keeler's has been even harder.

The wild laughter, the champagne, even the notoriety are memories for her now, nowhere near as real as the iron bars and discipline of bleak, turreted Holloway Prison for Women in North London.

Last June, when Profumo fell from power, this pouty 22-year-old girl with the pretty legs seemed to have gotten off with nothing worse than a tarnished reputation. But a court case being heard at the time proved her undoing. She testified that her ex-lover, Aloysius (Lucky) Gordon had beaten her up. Gordon, a Jamaican Negro jazz singer, was convicted but subsequently freed on appeal.

Christine then was tried on charges of perjury and conspiring to obstruct justice and sentenced on Dec. 6 to nine months in prison. With time off for good behavior she is due to be released this month.

Christine's friend, Mandy Rice-Davies, 19, blonde and quick-witted, found doors slammed in her face until recently. The Town Council in Solihull, England, protested when a television film showed her posing outside her old school. Society women in a swanky London hairdressing establishment got Mandy barred from the place.

Now she seems to be making a place for herself singing in night clubs, reportedly earning as much as $3,000 a week.

Luci Will Not Serve As Milwaukee Parade
Marshal on July 4

MILWAUKEE (AP)—Luci Baines Johnson, the President's younger daughter, has changed her mind about serving as honorary marshal of Milwaukee's circus parade the Fourth of July.

Mrs. Elizabeth Carpenter, a White House secretary, advised Wisconsin Sens. William Proxmire and Gaylord Nelson Monday that Luci now plans to spend the holiday with her family.

Miss Carpenter said in a letter that Miss Johnson loves Wisconsin and is sorry because a changed schedule has forced her to forego the pleasure of coming to Milwaukee.

—Dr. Stephen Ward, a 50-year-old society artist and osteopath—first met Christine Keeler in 1958 when she was 16. Up to the end he maintained that if she had followed his advice he could have married her into the peerage. He had used a villa in the grounds of Lord Astor's famed Cliveden Estate—where Profumo and Christine met—and a fashionable London apartment to entertain Profumo, Miss Keeler, Miss Rice-Davies, Soviet Naval Attaché Yegheny Ivanov and cleared Macmillan and his Cabinet. Ward took an overdose of drugs while being tried on charges of living on the earnings of prostitutes. He was convicted on two counts and faced a possible sentence of 14 years. Ward never knew. He died without recovering consciousness and sentence never was passed.

Astronomers, Once Mystery Men, Brought to Fore by Age of Space

BY RALPH DIGHTON

LOS ANGELES (AP) — You have probably never met one. They're nocturnal, mostly, and dwell on mountain tops in silvery domes that open only at night.

But they do come down into the cities occasionally, to greet their wives, kiss their kids and pick up fresh supplies.

You could, conceivably, bump into one.

If you do and his clothes look a little rumpled, it's probably because they've been on him all night, neglected while he gazed at sights in time and space that only his kind can see.

If you talk to him and his words have little meaning to you, it's because he thinks in a polyglot argon of technical terms invented to convey ideas beyond the ken of ordinary mortals.

Another World

If he seems like he's from another world — it's because that is what he deals with most of the time: Other worlds.

But treasure the meeting — you've just met a new kind of national hero.

He's an astronomer.

The blazing dawn of the space age has thrown a sudden light of public recognition on this servant of the night.

Once he wore black robes and peaked cap, and ordinary folk thought he could tell the future from the stars.

When it became a national goal to rocket humans into the hostile environment of the moon and planets, only the astronomer could plot the trajectories and guess what the explorers would encounter on their arrival.

Space Age

Before the space age opened with the launching of man-made satellites in 1957, the biggest single sum of money astronomers had ever been given to spend was $6 million in private funds — the cost of the 200-inch telescope on Palomar Mountain in Southern California.

Since 1957, some $50 million in government money has been granted by the National Science Foundation to Kitt Peak National Observatory at Tucson, Ariz., and the National Radio Astronomy Observatory at Green Bank, W.Va.

Even greater expenditures are planned for a new astronomical center being developed by five European nations and this country on the peaks

Everyone Welcome to Help Communist Money Pouring Into Newly Found Republic

BY DENNIS NEEDLE

ZANZIBAR (AP)—The Soviet Union, Communist China and East Germany are pumping men, money and machines into Zanzibar.

President Julius Nyerere of the new Republic of Tanganyika and Zanzibar is trying to assert his authority in the island 25 miles off the East African mainland.

Zanzibar's own president, Abeid Karume, 59, a Moslem probably has no deep love of communism. But the island leader, a seaman for 22 years, seems unversed in the ways of Communist infiltration.

Karume is the idol of the Zanzibar Africans and the island's most powerful single personality.

Communist Authority

Asked this month about Communists in positions of authority in Zanzibar, he replied: "What are one or two men? I have the power and I have my own eyes and ears."

Karume cites generous Communist aid as an indication of the bloc's friendship and says anyone who helps Zanzibar is welcome.

Some 150 technicians and experts from the Communist bloc are believed to be working in Zanzibar.

British civil servants have been replaced. East Germans have taken over the Finance Ministry and are helping run the radio station, Information Ministry, schools and medical services. They are doing preliminary work on projects to rehouse thousands of Africans huddled in squalid shanties outside Zanzibar town.

Farm Schemes

The Red Chinese are firmly ensconced in the agriculture department and are planning rice growing and other farm schemes to reduce the island's dependence on cloves.

China has granted Zanzibar an interest-free loan of $14 million, much of which will be in the form of equipment and services.

Soviet technicians have taken over running of the harbor and providing officers for Zanzibar's two coastal passenger ships. Soviet instructors are training about 400 recruits in the people's liberation army in the use of their new Soviet equipment.

Some of this was displayed at the big May Day parade, "but you didn't see all of it," says Maj. Ali Mahfoud, the army's Havana-indoctrinated second in command.

The army largely is officered by Zanzibaris of Arab origin and small groups have been sent behind the Iron Curtain for further training. Other Zanzibari troops reportedly are being sent to Indonesia.

Nyerere's Influence

As a result of Nyerere's influence, Zanzibari troops have discarded their Cuban-style caps and uniforms and now wear the standard green berets and uniforms of the Tanganyika forces.

Communist literature is everywhere. The Soviet Embassy hands it out to school children. The works of Mao Tse-tung crowd bookshops.

The United States embassy has also been permitted to reopen its reading room since Zanzibar and Tanganyika agreed to unite.

Western diplomats are hopeful Karume's African nationalism may come out on top and that Western presence may slowly be re-established.

Parade Winners At Hortonville Receive Awards

HORTONVILLE — Cash was presented to winners in the Kidie Parade held Saturday in conjunction with the Hortonville Homecoming. More than sixty entries were judged.

Cheryl Krause and Dale Young received first place in the "Pretty" division with an "Alice in Dairyland" float. Grace Garriott, dressed as Uncle Sam, was second; Becky Everts, a Dutch girl, third, and Joan Berg, as Little Bo Peep, fourth.

In the comic group Earl and Robert Hofacker, robots, were awarded first prize. Second place went to Greg Elliott disguised as Little Black Sambo and Cheryl and Jerome Laabs, as Humpty Dumpty, took third. Joan, Bethany, and Patricia Oik, dressed as Indians, were presented fourth prize.

Negro Elected to City Council Seat

PETERSBURG, Va. (AP) — Petersburg voters have elected a Negro, John H. Owens, to the City Council for the first time in nearly 100 years.

glass eye of light from objects' trillions of miles away.

In 1957, the nation's universities counted 168 graduates in astronomy. By last year the number had risen to 524 and hundreds more were rejected for lack of facilities.

The star-gazer's formal training lasts as long as a physician's. Twenty years or more of study pass before he wins his doctorate.

The astronomer today must be a master of mathematics and physics.

He must also know geology, and chemistry, so he can understand the make-up of other planets: biology and botany; electronics and engineering; the new science of nuclear energy, because the sun and other stars are hydrogen bombs in endless explosion; four to six foreign languages; and public affairs, because today he spends a great deal of public money and consequently is involved in politics.

Pennsylvania Dutch Dialect Showing Extraordinary Vigor

BY RUSSELL LANDSTROM

HELLERTOWN, Pa. (AP)—For a language believed by some linguists to be dying out, Pennsylvania Dutch is showing extraordinary vigor.

One who scoffs at the idea that the dialect is doomed is Robert Hoppes, 72, a retired teacher and a prime mover in a crusade to perpetuate Pennsylvania Dutch in speech and in print.

Hoppes and his colleagues say it is necessary to get rid of some notions about the language that they say have been spawned chiefly by opportunists among those catering to tourists.

Rustic Dialogues

The Pennsylvania Dutch known to the public is largely an assortment of rustic dialogues, homely aphorisms and mixed up domestic instructions.

Here are samples of what scholars call phony folk lingo, a mock mixture of Dutch-English:

"Look the window out and see who's coming the yard in."

"Pop's on the table still, and half et."

"The old ones is all (meaning gone, finished, the end) and the new ones ain't (meaning arrived) yet."

"We grow too soon old and too late schmart."

True Examples

These are cited as true examples of the mating of the dialect with English in the Pennsylvania Dutch country:

"Outen the light." Outen is a word that does yeoman service.

"He is wonderful sick." Wonderful is widely used in the sense of very, exceptional, etc.

"Make the door open."

"Eat your mouth empty once."

"I'll eat up and down," meaning on the run.

Hoppes, for 46 years a teacher, athletic coach and school principal, is of Pennsylvania Dutch descent. All his formal education, including higher learning at Kutztown State, Muhlenberg and Moravian, has been close to Pennsylvania Dutch roots and traditions.

Hoppes is secretary of the Hellertown Chamber of Commerce, an officer of several Pennsylvania Dutch organizations, and active in the Pennsylvania Dutch Folklife Society.

The areas of the state heavily populated by the Pennsylvania Dutch are to no small degree bilingual, in somewhat the same way South Africa is, with its English and Afrikaans.

Pennsylvania Dutch is used in all forms of social communication. It is widespread in business and professional life. It is employed in church services. A grasp of the dialect and some familiarity with the background of the people who use it are needed for an appreciation of the extensive Pennsylvania Dutch writing that is part of the regular journalistic fare in many thousands of homes. Some radio stations feature weekly Pennsylvania Dutch programs.

Although this state is the stronghold of the Pennsylvania Dutch, originally mostly immigrants from the Palatinate region of Germany, settlements were made also in New York, Delaware, Maryland, Virginia, North Carolina, Kentucky, Illinois, Michigan, Iowa, Wisconsin, Kansas, Ohio, Georgia, Indiana, Oklahoma, North Dakota and Canada, especially Ontario.

Senate Could Number 624 in Years to Come

Applying Concept Of Person, Vote
Voiced by Justices

BY DAVID LAWRENCE

WASHINGTON — Maybe if the ruling just announced by the Supreme Court of the United States — providing for "one person, one vote" — is applied to the federal government, the Senate of the United States some day may be composed of 624 senators.

The Supreme Court says that population must be the basis for the apportionment of state legislatures, but defends the present imbalance in the national Congress as "traditional." Yet traditions aren't always maintained, and the Supreme Court in many decisions has frequently taken the liberty of adjusting them to "the spirit of the times."

Applying the concept of "one person, one vote" it would be relatively easy for the Supreme Court to rewrite Article I of the Constitution, which provides for two senators for each state. The language could be interpreted by the high court to mean that, while the Constitution intended each state to have not less than two senators, this doesn't prevent a state from having more senators, especially if population is taken as the yardstick.

Under the 1960 census, there is an average of about 300,000 population in the four least populous states — Alaska, Vermont, Wyoming and Nevada. If one additional senator is granted in all the other states for every 300,000 of population above the initial 300,000, there would be a total of 624 senators.

A simple majority of the Senate would then be controlled by 313 votes, which could come from only 10 states — namely, New York, New Jersey, Massachusetts, Ohio, Michigan, Illinois, Nevada, Texas, California and Pennsylvania. A two-thirds vote of a Senate made up in this way could be obtained by the votes of only 18 states.

The principle back of such an imbalance is recognized by the Supreme Court in its recent ruling on how the districts in the various state legislatures shall be composed. The court's theory is that population was the only basis on which the representative system was inaugurated. It is difficult to see, however, how the Supreme Court can continue to apply the rule to state legislatures without some day feeling obliged to do the same with respect to Congress. The court has relied on the doctrine that citizens must have "equal protection of the laws," and that the apportionment must be on the basis of the actual number of voters so that the formula of "one person, one vote" is made effective.

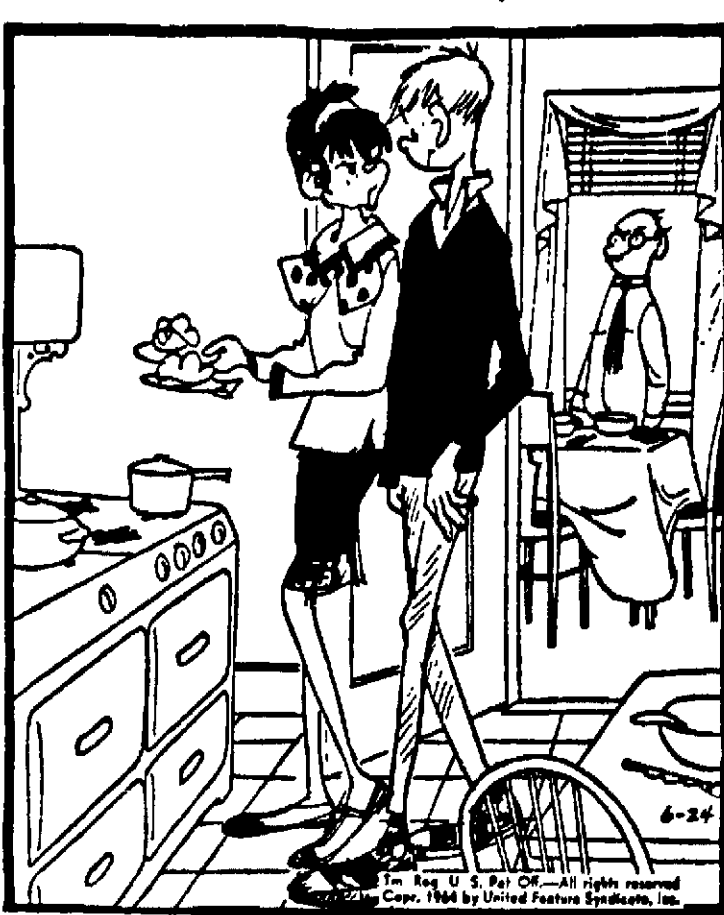

State Districting
The court went on to say, in connection with state apportionments, that it could "perceive no constitutional difference, with respect to the geographical distribution of state legislative representation, between the two houses of a bicameral state legislature." It added that the concept of a two-house system is not rendered meaningless because population is used as the predominant basis of representation. The court added:
"Different constituencies can be represented in the two houses. One body could be composed of single-member districts while the other could have at least some multi-member districts."

This suggestion could just as readily be applied to Congress. The lower house could continue to have more members, and the Senate could be composed of either 624 members or even more, depending upon what basic unit of population would be considered adequate for each state.

The whole emphasis in the latest Supreme Court ruling is on numbers. If a state, for example, attempted to limit the number of voters on the basis of intelligence qualifications, the argument would be raised that this is a form of discrimination. Nowhere in the recent Supreme Court opinion is there any recognition of the fact that, although the population has grown, this doesn't necessarily mean that the number of citizens with sufficient knowledge to vote intelligently on public questions has been correspondingly increased.

Live Within Your Income

Record Expenditures to Know Your Financial Performance

BY MARY FEELEY

Consultant in Money Management
You might think that lack of money is the number one nightmare in this era of high living costs. But many people worry more about where their money goes than how much they have to start with. They know they spend it—but it doesn't show up on the dinner table, it's not parked in the driveway, and it's not hanging in the clothes closet. So what did it but—last month and the more before?

In some cases, the worriers who write in are doing a pretty good job of making their salaries go around. They just don't know it! That's why I'm saying: put the facts down on paper and take a good look at them.

Mrs. R.B. in Detroit, on an income of $12,500 after taxes, writes: "In spite of our income, we have no savings, take no vacations and spend practically nothing on recreation." She adds: "... though we owe no one."

Changing Situations
According to your letter, Mrs. B., you are paying club dues, dancing lessons, operating two cars, paying camp costs for the children, building a retirement fund and carrying insurance. A lot of money can be called "investment"—you're putting it into people instead of stocks and bonds. People are good investments too. So you're doing more than you give yourself credit for.

From Madison, Wis. comes B.A.V.'s confession: "After 16 years of marriage, my husband and I are finding it more difficult to manage each year. In fact, we're more and more discouraged about our finances. When our children were small, beginning to hear from back home murmurs of real discontent over the recent Supreme Court decisions which dictate to the states of the union how they shall apportion representation in both houses of their respective state legislatures.

Apparently people in the farm and rural sections are afraid that domination by the cities may prove injurious to their properties, and that legislation beneficial to them which has hitherto been passed by the states will be discarded if the states legislatures are entirely rebuilt with another system of representation. It is feared also that the country will be governed by the political machines of a few big cities. Sen. Dirksen, Republican leader, has already said publicly that a constitutional amendment may be necessary to clarify the limits of the Supreme Court's ruling. (Copyright, 1964)

Appeal for Support

Chinese Rally Against Woes by Weather, Foes

BY JOHN RODERICK
 TOKYO (AP) — Assailed by outside foes and by new caprices of the weather, Red China's new crisis by emphasis on help most-prevalent slogans today are, "Support the people's re- public! Support the com- munes!"

These were the exhortations most frequently seen by a re- cent non-Asian traveler to the Chinese mainland. He would like to make another visit sometime and consequently asked that he remain nameless.

He recognized that massive ideological and personal attacks from the Soviet bloc may have brought out the unusual call for popular support of the Commu- nist regime. He was puzzled by the plea for unity behind the agricultural communes.

The answer has been supplied by recent news reports, one of them in the Tokyo economic newspaper Nihon Keizai, that the mainland was hit by unusu- ally cold weather and long spell of rain this spring.

The rain and cold have con- tributed to flooding and rotting of rice paddy plants and the de- struction of winter wheat by di- sease.

Rain in April was almost con- tinuous in some areas, creating wheat rust in Hopeh, Nonan, Shantung and Kiangsu prov- inces.

All this has been a blow to Chinese planners who looked forward to further agricultural improvements.

The government has met this of the 26,000 communes which, though much decentralized since the failures of three years ago, have an effective organizational structure.

A conference of agricultural technical experts has been called to study countermeas- ures.

The traveler saw evidence of flooding in the big industrial Wuhan area where many bridges were down or in the process of repair and large areas were under water.

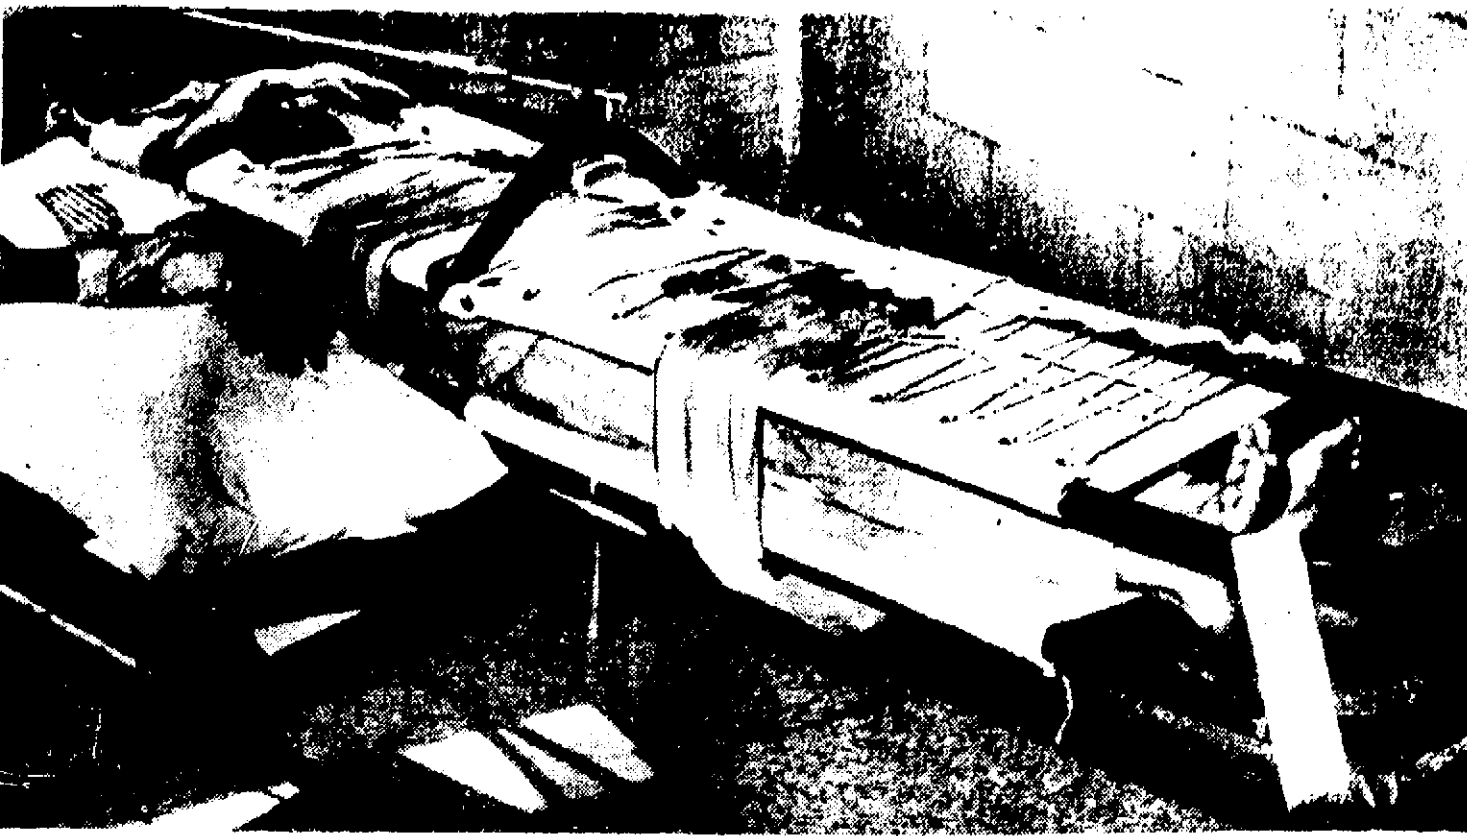

In the cities, however, he found the stores apparently well- stocked with a variety of goods, including food. One of his com- panions, who had lived in China before, found an improvement in the quantity and quality of the supplies.

During his trip, which lasted for two weeks and included Canton, Shanghai, Hankow and Pek- ing, this visitor was struck by the apparent absence of mech- anization on the farms.

He saw some communes, but agreed with prevailing diplomat- ic opinion in Peking that they had been a failure in terms of their original purpose of sup- porting the 1958 industrial "great leap forward."

Bad weather, Communist mis- management and Soviet with- drawal of technicians in 1961 all contributed to the collapse of the communes and the industrial program.

He complained of a general grayness in the country as a whole. But the youth were an exception. Lively, organized in- to youth groups, they tramped about the countryside, accordi- ng to their shoulders, as eager and in- quisitive as Americans, British or Japanese youngsters.

Boy's Arms, Legs Amputated Under Wheels of Train

LOS ANGELES (AP) — Two women watched Tuesday as a teen-age boy leaped from car to car on a slow-moving train — then slipped and plunged to the tracks.

"I shouted to him, real loud, to lie still and not move," said Mrs. Lois Walsh.

The boy apparently heard. He ducked his head.

Then, said Mrs. Walsh "some- thing beneath one of the cars caught him and turned him over and over beneath the wheels."

When ambulance attendants reached the scene, they called for the coroner. The apparently lifeless body of Walter Felder lay between the tracks. The train's wheels had amputated his arms and legs.

Then attendants detected a spark of life. Walter, 13, was hospitalized. Five surgeons bat- tled to keep him alive. In a cor- ridor outside, his mother, Ann McGruder, 42, waited. "My boy is strong," she said. "He's very husky. I'm sure if anyone can pull through this, he can. He's a real boy."

Labor Dispute Brief Must be Filed by July 6

Madison Attorney To Handle Appleton Case Before WERB

Robert Sundby, Madison, must present the city's case in a brief before July 6, in the dispute between Appleton and members of Teamsters Local 563, according to City Atty. Frederick Froehlich.

The dispute involves the City of Appleton and some unionized employees in the Department of Public Works over a 1964 contract.

Sundby had been hired by the city to represent it in factfinding before Atty. Philip Marshall, Milwaukee.

Question Hearing Marshall will determine the necessity of an oral hearing after reviewing the facts presented in the briefs.

In other business the committee recommended the city council adopt the following ordinances:

Christmas tree salesmen should be required to buy a $1 license. This would give the city authority to make salesmen clean property used for selling or have the city clean and add the cost to the tax roll.

The city should require all sewer and water lines, not immediately used or discontinued being used, shall be securely sealed so as to be water tight. That licenses must be obtained from the plumbing inspector and only master plumbers and pump installers recognized by the State of Wisconsin, shall be allowed to do the work.

Recodify Ordinances Recodification of charter ordinances should be adopted as recommended by Atty. Robert Sundby, Madison. Many of the ordinances on the books are covered by other statutes and are not needed as presented in the records.

A charter ordinance should be adopted to provide that one alderman be elected from each of the twenty wards, in the City of Appleton.

Oshkosh Firm Reports 14-Foot Boat Stolen

KAUKAUNA — A 14-foot aluminum boat, owned by B. R. Miller and Sons, Oshkosh, was reported stolen from a pond at the Lower Mill of the Thilmany Pulp and Paper Company where the firm was doing excavating work.

Owners were unable to determine when the boat was taken, but reported a tree to which it had been chained was broken off to permit taking of the boat.

Police Object to Carry-Ins of Beer at Goodland Field

Appleton Chief Recommends Ban for Fox Cities Foxes Games

Appleton Police Chief Earl O. Wolff has recommended a ban on baseball fans bringing bottled goods (beer) to games of the Fox Cities Foxes played at Goodland Field.

The police department's objection to beer carry-ins was disclosed at meetings of two common council committees at the city hall Tuesday night.

However, the welfare ordinance and the public safety committees indicated the matter did not come within their jurisdiction and referred it to the city recreation commission.

Chief Wolff explained that the management of the baseball club could establish a policy prohibiting carry-ins because the park is leased from the city, or the common council could adopt an ordinance prohibiting the practice.

Creating a Hazard Police and baseball club officials claim beer bottles are being broken in and around the grandstand with the glass and debris creating a hazard for others attending games.

"According to the general manager of the Fox Cities Foxes, this problem has plagued

Mitchell to Name Parking Commission

Mayor Clarence Mitchell will appoint members to the new Appleton Parking Commission by Aug. 1, he indicated at a meeting of the council's public safety committee Tuesday night.

Final reading and passage of the ordinance establishing the five-member commission will be on the agenda at the council's July 1 meeting.

"I will have made all the appointments within 30 days after adoption," Mitchell said.

John Lally, chairman of the Chamber of Commerce parking committee made some inquiries as to the functions of the proposed commission.

He also asked if the committee was considering any action concerning its policy of issuing parking meter hoods or a monthly fee basis.

Robert Stumpf (9th), committee chairman, said the parking meter matter would be turned over to the new parking commission.

The city has stopped issuing Manufacturing Company hooded, believed to have been started by sparks from the foundry stack.

Church of Christ Census This Week

Members of the Appleton Church of Christ are conducting a religious census of the city this week in an attempt to find new members for their church.

Assisting them are 17 members of the church from Texas who also are here to conduct a three-day lecture series at the Appleton church this weekend.

The census hopes to include about half of the homes in Appleton in various parts of the city. Families in the northeast part of the city were interviewed Tuesday.

The census takers will be in the central western section of the city today and Thursday. They also hope to study the southeast side Thursday.

Appleton Pair to Head State Scranton Group

Mrs. Peter Nelson, Dennis Herrling Named Co-Chairmen by National Unit

Wisconsin finally has an official organization supporting the "Wisconsin Committee for Scranton," two state groups had been awaiting word on which was the official Scranton organization.

Two Groups One group was Mrs. Nelson's and the other had former State Sen. Bernhard Gettelmen, 74, Milwaukee, as chairman.

Allan Blank, a University of Wisconsin law student in Madison, who said he had been working with "Scranton people in Philadelphia," organized the second group and Monday appointed Gettelmen chairman.

However, he later cancelled Gettelmen's appointment when he learned about Mrs. Nelson's Scranton committee.

Parking Test Decision to be Made Soon

A decision on whether to conduct a front-to-back parallel parking test on a few blocks in the College Avenue business district will be made within the next two weeks.

Action was postponed by the council's public safety committee for the second consecutive meeting Tuesday night because Police Chief Earl O. Wolff was out of the city. He is attending a seminar in Minneapolis.

Robert Stumpf (9th), committee chairman, said the committee did not want to act until Wolff was present so he could give his views.

Recently Wolff went with Planner-Traffic Engineer Walter Rasmussen to Madison and studied a parallel parking plan there.

Merchants on the avenue have indicated they are opposed to any kind of a parallel parking test.

However, city officials say a test should be conducted to determine whether front-to-back parallel parking has any advantages which could be incorporated when College Avenue is redesigned.

Police Warn Against Shooting Firearms

KAUKAUNA — A resident nearly hit by a stray 22 bullet while he worked in his yard has led Chief Harold Engerson to issue a reminder about the use of any type of firearms within the city limits.

Police have confiscated some guns from youngsters including pellet and BB guns and these will be held until parents are able to impress on children the danger of firing weapons within the city limits. Engerson reminds parents they are liable for damage done by their children through careless use of firearms.

Economic Regulation Unit Under Fire at CAB Hearing

BER Criticized by Outagamie Attorney for Changing Mind On Regional Airport Location

Attorney Won't Seek Byrne's Job if Opposed

Mayor Bayorgeon of Kaukauna Said Contender for Post

Joins Airline In Backing Oshkosh

WASHINGTON — Oshkosh received support from two "old friends" today as testimony was given to the Civil Aeronautics Board (CAB) on the North Central Airlines regional airport investigation.

The Oshkosh support was in the form of formal repetition of old positions by the airline itself and by the CAB's Bureau of Economic Regulation (BER).

Both North Central and the BER recommended that Oshkosh be used as the regional airport for the Appleton-Oshkosh complex of cities in the Fox Valley.

They gave their views "because it seems unlikely that a new regional airport would be built at Neenah - Menasha" to serve the area.

Winnipeg Boardings In the testimony, a BER spokesman said 70 per cent of the airline traffic from the area is presently being boarded at the Winnipeg County Airport in Oshkosh.

The BER said it doesn't favor Appleton as the regional airport site because "25 per cent of the passengers who now board at Oshkosh would rather drive to Milwaukee where they can get trunk line service to Chicago and the Twin Cities (Minneapolis-St. Paul) and save time doing so."

The BER said this 25 per cent of airline business "would be lost" if Appleton became the regional airport site.

(Appleton presently gets its North Central service at the old Outagamie County Airport in the form of only two northbound and two southbound flights daily, while Oshkosh has three times as many—six northbound and six southbound.)

(However, a new Outagamie County Airport is now being constructed in the Town of Greenville, just west of Appleton. The new Outagamie airport is only five miles north of the site which had been recommended for a new regional airport near Neenah.)

Save $80,000 North Central also testified today if its Appleton flights were transferred to Oshkosh, the airline would save $80,000 annually.

At a hearing last August in Washington, T. K. Jordan, director of the CAB, said:

OSHKOSH—All officers of the Wisconsin Paid Firemen's Legislative Association were re-elected for one-year terms Tuesday by the state firemen who are holding their annual convention here.

The president and secretary-treasurer of the United Professional Fire Fighters of Wisconsin also were re-elected to one-year terms at the convention.

Renamed for the Paid Firemen's Association were Walter Roelke, Sheboygan, president; James Gerlach, Kenosha, vice president; and James Hauser, Beloit, secretary-treasurer.

Smerz Re-Elected Darrell Smerz, Milwaukee, was re-elected to a three year term on the board of directors. Other board members are Calvin Phillips, Oshkosh; Glyn Brittan, Superior; Herman Freistadt, Waukesha; and Leonard Osness, Antigo.

Royal Taylor, Beloit, was re-named president of the Professional Fire Fighters group, and Edward Sciborski, LaCrosse, was re-elected secretary-treasurer. Harland Lippitt, Madison, was elected vice-president, replacing Harold Kramer of Appleton.

Elected to the executive board were Robert Engel, Milwaukee; Albert Barney, Eau Claire; Kenneth Mueller, Manitowish, and Ralph Hilkins, Janesville. Re-elected were Eugene Mucklin, Kenosha, and Thomas Liebaert, Superior.

Clark Given Counsel By Outagamie Court

James C. Clark, 22, was given legal counsel Tuesday when he was arraigned in Outagamie County Court Branch 2 Tuesday. He is charged with forgery, taking a car without owner's consent and robbery.

Clark was arrested last week in Manitowish when he was seen driving a car reported stolen earlier in Appleton.

Clark is being held on $5,000 bond in the county jail for a hearing Friday.

THE HEART OF JULIE JONES

YOU ARE THE BLUEST MAN I HAVE EVER MET! COME ON BACK, RICHARD.

RICHARD IS THE WORD FOR ME! HENRY IT? AFTER ALL, WHAT ARE ANY ANTICIPATIONS?

THE GAMEKEEPER'S SON. ALL THAT SIMPLE MAN EVER TAUGHT ME WAS HONESTY, LOYALTY - AND RESPECT FOR THE FEELINGS OF OTHERS.

WHAT WAS THAT ALL ABOUT JENNIFER?

I'M NOT GIVING UP. BUT WHEN I DO KNOW I'LL NEVER TALK TO THAT CREATURE - EVER AGAIN!

Ambassador Lodge Resigns

There are a number of interesting implications to the suddenly announced resignation of Henry Cabot Lodge as ambassador to Viet Nam and his replacement by Gen. Maxwell D. Taylor.

The Lodge resignation was rumored at the time that Governor Scranton announced he was a Republican presidential candidate. It was immediately denied. His letter of resignation was officially dated last Friday and apparently his decision came abruptly.

Mr. Lodge says he will return to this country almost immediately to give Scranton all the help he can in his bid to stop a Goldwater nomination. In this we must presume him to be entirely sincere, although we cannot help but speculate that Mr. Lodge may also be thinking that he might be a logical third choice if the Goldwater bandwagon is halted and Scranton also fails to get the top post. Or he might also be a logical choice as a running mate again should Scranton succeed.

But of more significance in the long run is President Johnson's choice of the chairman of the Joint Chiefs of Staff to succeed Lodge. General Taylor has had a long and illustrious career as a military man. The fact that he is our leading military figure is obviously of as much importance in his choice as the fact that he is a very capable public servant.

There have been many indications that our involvement in Southeast Asia is taking a new turn. All of our top strategists met several weeks ago in Hawaii to draft new recommendations for President Johnson.

Nothing has been said publicly since that time about those recommendations, which must mean they involved military decisions.

Then came the sending of reconnaissance planes over Laos to check on the activities of Communist forces in that country, the shooting down of two American planes and a retaliatory raid by our bombers on anti-aircraft installations of the Pathet Lao.

In recent days we have been hearing more and more proposals from various sources for a military confrontation with Red China. These suggestions have been particularly disturbing.

Against this background General Taylor's appointment must mean that military considerations have become more important in the development of our policies in Southeast Asia.

Mr. Lodge has had an eventful tour of duty as ambassador to Viet Nam. Soon after he arrived on the scene the Diem regime was shot down. The war's pace has increased significantly since. What progress either side is making is still very confused. What real contribution Mr. Lodge has made to a more affirmative American policy or eventual success can not be evaluated at this time.

Certainly it is true, though, that he willingly accepted a most difficult assignment and that he leaves the war in Viet Nam in no worse shape even if it is no better. What further public service he may render this country in the immediate future will be in the hands of the Republican party.

Interested in Politics? Like Swimming, Way To Start Is Jump In

BY JOHN WYNGAARD

MADISON—The man at the counter had a question, but he hesitated.

Perhaps because he didn't want to appear naive, he made a small talk for a few moments, before he asked: "How do you get into politics?"

Wyngaard

It is a common question addressed to those who report on public affairs. The fact that it is so frequent undoubtedly shows that there remains some mystery about politics as a career and as an avocation.

This attractive young man apparently was interested in political activity aside from running for public office, at least as a start. That distinction indicated a certain awareness of the realities. Too often ambitious young men run for office before they have a very clear notion about what goes on at city hall, or the state capitol, or in the national government, merely for the gratification of vanity or sometimes for the lack of something else interesting to do.

fice-holders of all ranks to attract recruits.

In any political party headquarters worth the name in this state at this season, in any county, a man or woman who walks in off the street and announces that he wants to do some work in the campaigns will be greeted with open arms. No party chairman ever has enough members. No congressman or aspirant for the governorship ever has as much manpower as he wants and needs, to get all the work done that he knows must be done to assure his election or reelection. Sometimes what work is dull and grueling, to those who see it only in its physical terms. But it can be the most rewarding and fascinating work available to the energetic citizen who is able to relate it to the great task of democratic self-government in an era when government has become the most important fact in American life.

INDIFFERENCE

The mournful fact is that political rank and power is often available to men and women because of the lack of competition. Men and women who labor long and hard on community service projects often look upon service contributions to the party of their choice as demeaning. Even as in the basic civic exercise of voting, there is a vast indifference. Critics have lamented and scorned the fact that even the major elections up to a quarter of the eligible voters of Wisconsin ignore the polling booths. But political work, without which a viable representative system cannot be assured, is totally foreign to at least 85 per cent of the inhabitants of this state, although undoubtedly typical of the country as a whole.

How do you get into politics? Pick up the telephone and call the candidate for congress, or state senator, or whatever, who appears to you to be worth support and volunteer for some help to gain an insight into the operations of the democratic system available in no other way.

JUMP IN

Political activity is like swimming. The way to start is to jump in.

The young person may have studied politics and government in college, as the boy may have studied the manuals on swimming. But he must get into the water to develop proficiency, on the one hand, and he must work in a party organization, or in the campaign headquarters of a candidate, or as a local party committeeman, or merely as a volunteer in the local party organization in a campaign season, to acquire the direct experience in politics without which the academic studies remain incomplete.

It is curious that there remains any mystery about the eager desire of political parties, political leaders and of-

President Must Speak Out Now On Threat of War With China

BY MAX FREEDMAN

In the past few days, both in Washington and Southeast Asia, various spokesmen for the Johnson administration have raised the prospect of a war with China if the Peking government does not stop making trouble in Viet Nam. This kind of threat is more likely to divide and worry American opinion than it is to frighten Peking or to serve the cause of peace.

Although the warning is addressed to China, the real culprit is North Viet Nam. Until now, the United States has blamed North Viet Nam for the unrest in South Viet Nam and Laos. It has acted on the belief that North Viet Nam did not wish to be a mere puppet of China.

This belief has now collapsed. For it makes no sense at all to think of raids on selected targets in North Viet Nam if China's strength has first to be broken before a settlement can be reached.

TWO EXTREME COURSES

In all previous discussions, two extreme courses were always excluded from serious consideration. It was assumed that the United States would never run away from Viet Nam, nor would it threaten military action against China. For the flimsiest of reasons, and without advancing any proof that the new policy would succeed, these administration leaders have now decided to fling a direct military challenge at China.

How is China to be punished? Presumably not even these advocates of reckless war are in favor of landing American troops in China, though such action may become inevitable if they are allowed to have their way. China cannot be broken by attacks from the sea or by landings from the air. Are we to drop some hydrogen bombs on China? That would at once expose us to the fatal charge that we reserve our most deadly weapons for the people of Asia. This charge would cause us more damage in Southeast Asia than the worst defeat we could suffer in Viet Nam.

Nor would we have very much help in trying to crush Chinese resistance. Not a single member of the NATO alliance would support this reckless adventure. It does no good rebuking our NATO partners. They see no similarity at all between the Berlin problem and the situation in Viet Nam. For many years Berlin has been a common responsibility for the whole alliance. No such shared responsibility has ever been accepted in Viet Nam. The political goals sought by the United States may have commanded general agreement but the military burden, in essentials, has fallen on this country alone. So would the agony of a war with China. After Korea it is not permissible for any American to make light of what a struggle with China inevitably means.

Besides, no one can now say with exact knowledge what Russia's role would be in such a struggle. Russia has a treaty to come to the defense of China if China is attacked. This treaty has now been questioned by Russia but has not been repudiated. What right has anyone in Washington to assume that Moscow would do nothing while America lunged at China? This might be the one thing that could still bring Russia and China together in a common policy. Or Russia might go on fresh adventures of her own while America was bogged down in China. Have these risks and dangers been sufficiently weighed by our policy-makers?

IT'S RECKLESS BRINKMANSHIP

Perhaps this whole effect is simply designed to prove that the Johnson administration can be as tough as Senator Goldwater. It had better watch itself or it will merely prove that it is more stupid than the senator. Nor even in his worst moments was John Foster Dulles ever guilty of such a crude and reckless act of brinkmanship as the one into which the Johnson administration has now stumbled.

Only one remedy is left. President Johnson must take the American people into his full confidence. There must be an end to these melodramatic briefings by senior officials who refuse to be quoted by name and who refuse to accept personal responsibility for their provocative statements.

Our Aid to Elderly Is Approved

From The Florida, Ill., Journal-Star

There has been a lot of talk about the need to lift the crushing weight of taxation from the backs of elderly Americans, and we were happy to read last week that Wisconsin has decided to do something about the problem.

Next year when the Wisconsin property tax bills come out, elderly householders whose annual income is less than $3,000 will be able to apply for relief to pay their taxes.

As far as we know Wisconsin is the first state in the union which has attempted to correlate a man's property tax with his ability to pay it.

In Illinois several attempts have been made in recent years to pass homestead exemptions of one kind or another for the elderly, but nothing has succeeded. One bill passed the House last year but was killed in the Senate.

The Wisconsin plan, which both Democrats and Republicans got together to support, differs from the Illinois proposals in that it gives tax relief to those who need it rather than to all elderly people.

Relief is really what many of our elderly citizens need, and the tack that has been taken in Wisconsin might well be followed by our own legislators who have been concerned about the problem.

The principle involved here is the same one which led Congress to choose the Kerr-Mills plan for medical assistance to the elderly rather than the administration's "Medi-Care" plan. Kerr-Mills is intended to give help where it is needed rather than to everyone.

The idea of helping all elderly people has a democratic ring to it, but it is an idea which also takes us one step further down the road to socialism. Somehow the prospect of government — whether it be state, national or local — taking care of everyone's needs undermines the real principles of individual freedom.

Still, we must devise ways to help those in our society who will suffer without some kind of help. Wisconsin has found one way which other states ought to consider.

GRIN AND BEAR IT

By LICHTY

"Naturally, I'll welcome one-dollar campaign contributions... but we must tell the contributors that the money will buy them no diplomatic posts!"

Ford on Collective Bargaining

Henry Ford II had something to say recently on the subject of collective bargaining which badly needed saying. He declared that willingness to accept a strike is "part of the price" of preserving "free and responsible collective bargaining."

His Ford Motor Company is about to enter new contract negotiations with the United Auto Workers Union. "I am convinced that responsible bargaining is most unlikely if the very possibility of a strike is ruled out from the beginning. Willingness on the part of the public, government and management to accept a strike, if necessary, is part of the price we must pay for the preservation of free and responsible collective bargaining — whether that willingness is ever put to the test or not."

Make the Debt Regular

There should be wholehearted approval of the state debt policy chapter of the recommendations filed by a study group of the "Committee of 25" which is reviewing state fiscal problems.

The committee firmly urges an abandonment of the deceitful and clumsy "dummy corporation" subterfuge to sell state bonds, and asks for public support of a direct borrowing program through a change in state constitutional law. As these columns have said often before, the present system tends to mislead the public as well as the legislature, it is dangerously susceptible to abuse, and results in interest and other service charges on the long-term obligations that the state cannot afford to pay.

As our news account of the report indicated, the members of this examining committee seemed surprised at the extent that the state has borrowed thus far through this egregious device. But we are not surprised that they seem surprised. Officially Wisconsin is without debt. That is what the state auditor says in his annual report. That is what the state government directories upon which the impressions of the rest of the country are based seem to say.

It is time also to assert that Democratic administrations at Madison in recent years have appeared willing to face the realities of the state debt problem, but that the Republicans generally and notably those who have led the legislature during the last decade or more have been reluctant to do so.

Governor Nelson and Governor Reynolds have asked for debt amendments to the constitution. But the men who push the roll call buttons in the legislative branch have evidently been worried about the reactions of their constituents. Thus they have preserved a record of opposition to state borrowing, while in fact they have not objected and have obliquely encouraged the fictitious corporation device to borrow in the state's name instead.

The assertion may be unpleasant to men of prudent and conservative attitudes on finance matters, but there can no longer be any doubt either about the state's willingness to borrow, or the need. Some $300,000,000 in state bonds are now outstanding, without benefit of complete regularity. The recent citizens' committee report says that at least $200,000,000 more in such bonds can be forecast for the next four years. The legislature should quit kidding itself and its constituents. Let's end this masquerade, and put the state bonding program into the open. It may very well be that it will be controlled more circumspectly when it is on the board for all to see.

Looking Backward

Political Picture in Congress

100 YEARS AGO
Quoted from the Appleton Crescent for June 11, 1964.

The late Republican party having split in twain, there is a possibility that the people may fail to make a constitutional choice at election time.

In this event, the election will devolve upon the present House if the House should fail to elect, which is not impossible, the Vice President chosen by the Senate would become President. There would be no doubt as to what result would ensue.

A decided majority of the present Senate would vote for Gen. John Conchane of New York.

In no event can Lincoln carry a constitutional majority by States in the present House. Neither can Fremont — nor the Democratic candidate, unless the forces of the two latter should "fuse."

Such is the political posture in the present Congress.

25 YEARS AGO
Wednesday, June 23, 1939.
It was announced that day that Lou Gehrig, one-time great first baseman with the New York Yankees, would never play ball again due to a chronic ailment. Gehrig had voluntarily benched himself May 2, ending his consecutive games at 2,130.

U.S. Sen. Gerald P. Nye of North Dakota was visiting at the home of his aunt, Mrs. Alice Nye, at Hortonville. He was the speaker at the 7th annual Hortonville homecoming.

C. B. Peterman, Appleton, was reappointed district commander of 2d District, United Spanish War Veterans. Appleton, Manhattan Club was to hold a summer dance in the Menasha Memorial Building. Members of the planning committee included Mr. and Mrs. A. A. Anderson, Mr. and Mrs. Royal Gooding, Neenah, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Hoffman and Mr. and Mrs. Robert Cottrell, Menasha.

10 YEARS AGO
Wednesday, June 23, 1934.
Nicholas Vander Pas was elected president of the Foremen's Club at Combined Locks Paper Corporation with other officers for the year; Norbert F. Noy, vice president; Robert Hella, secretary, and Otto Versegan, treasurer.

Champions at playing jacks at Kaukauna playgrounds were Patricia Wettstein, Joyce Sachs and Glenn Mullett. Kennedy Dietrich won first place in croquet competition.

Receiving blue ribbons as first place winners in the Outagamie County food and nutrition contest were Charleen Willenkamp of the Limestone Ridge 4-H Club, Sandra Brownson, Chief Shore Girls Club, Jean Wickesberg, Willing Workers, Theresa Lehrer, of the Green Acres, and Sally Brownson, Chief Shore Girls.

J. Thomas Weber was elected grand knight of Father Fitzmaurice Council, Knights of Columbus. Other officers included Robert Bachman, Gregory Schulte, Orville Yingling, Ed Wettengel Jr., Robert Dohr, George Greisch, Roman Reichel and Gordon Woldt.

Potomac Fever— by Jack Wilson

The Senate is expected to approve the pay bill too. They need a raise over there, now that Bobby Baker isn't around to pick up the check.

Nobody doubts that Barry Goldwater would be a fearless leader, but there's some problem about a shortage of fearless followers.

Don't be surprised if the Republicans finally pick Lodge. He is the only one who hasn't done something foolish, such as letting the delegates see him.

Maybe the Republican situation isn't confused — but Harold Stassen just ordered another two dozen campaign buttons.

Governor Scranton this week is testing a theory that many other young men have debated: Do you really get a better deal if you enlist instead of waiting to be drafted?

Innocent Plea Is Entered by Waupaca Man on Beer Charge

WAUPACA—Richard E. Olson, 21, route 1, Waupaca, pleaded innocent in municipal court Tuesday to a charge of furnishing beer for off premises consumption. He was bound over to county court for trial and released after posting a $150 property bond.

Olson was charged with furnishing beer for a party attended by at least six teen-agers, June 5, in the Town of Dayton. Five of the six teen-agers appeared earlier in court and were fined $50 and costs after they pleaded guilty to charges of drinking beer off licensed premises. The sixth pleaded not guilty and was bound over to county court. All were more than 18 years old.

Lucy Wants to Have Debates With Olson

MADISON (AP)—Patrick J. Madson proposed a series of 10 debates today with the man he is challenging for re-election—Republican Gov. Jack Olson.

Loneliness Called Factor In All Mental Illnesses

BY JOHN F. WHEELER
COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP)—The subject almost never comes up in polite conversation. Yet, it is one of man's universal experiences. It is the theme in many ballads and in nearly all of the folk songs. Without it, there could be no "blues." A patient who suffers from it says: "You feel this thing, but you can't talk about it." "It" is loneliness. Not the emotion of loneliness as the layman knows it, says Dr. John A. Whieldon, a professor of psychiatry at Ohio State University, but loneliness as the psychiatrists now view it—a key factor in all mental illness. Whieldon, who has been treating loneliness patients since 1955 would go a step further. He thinks it may be at the root of all mental problems.
Fourth Paper
The professor is completing what he terms "only the fourth paper" on loneliness research. What is loneliness? Why make such a big thing out of it? Whieldon admits psychiatrists can't agree on a definition. Perhaps the patients get the idea across best: "I have a feeling I can't come close to people. It isn't that I don't want to. It's a fear if I did I would have to buckle under to someone or that I'd have to really be interested in somebody else."
"One of the deepest feelings I have is that I will never have anything—that there isn't anything."
"One thing I have longed for, someone in my family with whom I might have a common ground. There was no one in my family that was really interested in me or what I did."
"In school I was considered a snob. I just can't see why, because I really wasn't. I was very lonely."
"I hate to be alone, but people bore me."
Whieldon says loneliness is "not so much an active thing but an incapacity. An apartness as against a removedness."
"Loneliness is in contrast to love and hate in that in both love and hate, the individual is personally involved," he says.
Referring to the recent New York incidents when neighbors and passers-by watched a killing and an attempted rape without acting to help the victims, Whieldon says:
"This grows out of loneliness; we are afraid to be involved." One thing that disturbs Whieldon is his feeling that many psychiatrists are treating lonely patients but are not fully aware of loneliness as a mental illness. He says patients come because some of the defenses against loneliness have failed. Another problem is the patient's discovery that he is lonely. One patient said: "Without my anxieties I feel flattened out. At least when I was anxious I knew I was alive. It isn't that I feel unhappy, but I just don't feel happy."

"One of the basic processes of childhood is to resolve one's loneliness," says Whieldon. To do this, everyone must learn "to make meaningful emotional contact with others." The lonely person, he believes, never learns to do this or has lost the capacity to do so. Such a person then falls back on a variety of defenses — sexual promiscuity, daydreaming, tantrums, narcissism, provocative-ness, hyperactivity and "the last defense — schizophrenia." The professor finds, too, that researching and writing about loneliness is a lonesome if not a lonely business. In his field, he says "it is surprising that so

Pentagon Reports Negro Treatment Changed at Posts
WASHINGTON (AP)—The Pentagon's civil rights chief today reported some "spectacular changes" in treatment of Negro servicemen in areas around military bases.
Alfred B. Fitt, deputy assistant secretary of defense for civil rights, indicated he expects the new civil rights bill to help in scoring further gains against racial discrimination affecting servicemen.
He referred here to a section of the new bill providing remedies for persons barred on racial or religious grounds from such public accommodations as hotels and motels, restaurants, places of entertainment.
The Pentagon's year-old drive to eradicate discrimination against servicemen has relied largely upon persuasion, with base commanders generally dealing with local officials on a case-by-case basis.

FBI Finds Burned Auto Used by 3 Missing Men

Allen Dulles Goes to Mississippi on Mission For President Johnson

BY MICHAEL SMITH
PHILADELPHIA, Miss. (AP)—Allen W. Dulles, former chief of the Central Intelligence Agency, flies to Mississippi today on a White House mission to look into the mysterious disappearance of three young civil rights workers.

The charred hulk of the station wagon used by the trio was found by FBI agents late Tuesday at the edge of a swamp off a lonely road northeast of this central Mississippi town.

Philadelphia is the seat of justice for Neshoba County, called jective, I have no doubt that he will find that law and order prevail," the governor said.

The station wagon was found about 100 feet from State 21, 15 miles northeast of Philadelphia, where Owl Creek backs away to form a backwater slough.

Automobile Guarded

There was speculation that the bodies of the three civil rights workers were somewhere under the dark, cold waters.

The station wagon was towed to a garage here and kept under guard. Two FBI laboratory technicians were to study it today.

Schwerner, who had been working in the Meridian area for several months, Cheney and Goodman were last seen about 10:30 p.m. Sunday, leaving Philadelphia in a southerly direction.

An FBI agent said the station wagon apparently was burned Sunday night or before dawn Monday.

Goodman was one of 175 out-of-state volunteers who arrived in Mississippi over the weekend to take part in Negro voter registration and education projects after training at Oxford, Ohio.

House Approves ROTC Expansion

WASHINGTON (AP)—The House climaxed a long fight with Secretary of Defense Robert S. McNamara Tuesday. It passed a bill to expand the Reserve officer training program in high schools and colleges.

It was a personal victory for Rep. F. Edward Hebert, D-La., who introduced the measure after becoming irked by McNamara's proposal last year to eliminate high school ROTC and curtail the college program. The bill now goes to the Senate.

Fireworks on Barge Explode, Killing 2 Men

Throngs Cheer as They Mistake Blasts
For Part of Act

BY RICHARD F. WHALEN
NEW YORK (AP)—A fireworks-laden barge exploded in a fury of rockets, flares and bombs on the Hudson River Tuesday night, killing two men. Thousands of spectators cheered. They thought it was part of the show.

Half a million persons lined the riverbanks in Manhattan and New Jersey for the fireworks spectacle, produced since 1957 by Macy's department store.

Two other barges, whose crews apparently were unaware of the fatal accident, continued firing rockets into the sky.

Get News of Tragedy

At the finale, 20 minutes later, spectators some distance from the blast, off 96th Street, still were cheering. A hush fell on thousands of others as news of the blast spread.

John Serpico, president of International Fireworks Co. of North Bergen, N.J., said "a low burst that apparently ignited shells on the deck of the barge" caused the explosion.

Killed were Anthony Amato, 60, of Secaucus, N.J., and Anthony De Francisco, 40, of Spar-kill, N.Y.

Four other men on the barge were rescued by the tug which was towing it. One was treated at a hospital for burns and released.

Less than an hour earlier, an explosion destroyed an ammunition room in the sub-basement of a Manhattan armory where about 385 National Guard reservists were attending a weekly drill.

Nineteen were injured. All but four were released after hospital treatment. Two of the four were in serious condition.

Cause of the blast, which knocked out heavy concrete walls and blew off the steel doors to the room, has not been determined.

3 Persons Die in Single Car Crash in Marquette County

BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS
The deaths of five persons, including three in a single car crash in Marquette County, have raised Wisconsin's 1964 highway toll to 441, compared with 369 on this date a year ago.

Lawrence C. Schliepp, 63, of rural Pardeeville in Columbia County; his wife, Ella, about 60, and their 9-year-old grandson, Charles Schliepp of Hartland, were killed Tuesday night when their car missed a curve, skidded several hundred feet and overturned on Highway 23, about a mile and a half west of Montello. Charles was the son of Mr. and Mrs. Lester Schliepp.

Michael Simon, 7, of rural Fond du Lac was killed late Tuesday when his bicycle was struck by a car on a road near his home. He was the son of Felix Simon.

Author Frank Scully, 71, Dies of Coronary

PALM SPRINGS, Calif. (AP)—Frank Scully, who wrote with humor about the physical pain he experienced, is dead at 71.

He had reportedly undergone more than 40 operations in the past 30 years.

His death Tuesday was attributed to a coronary occlusion.

Scully came to Hollywood as a writer for 20th Century-Fox Studios in 1932. He later was a columnist for the show business magazine Variety, as well as the author of books about illness, including "Fun in Bed."

Taylor Expected to Unify Military and Civilian Leadership

General Prepares to Fly
To Viet Nam as Ambassador

WASHINGTON (AP)—Gen. Maxwell D. Taylor, who has never known defeat, flies to war-torn South Viet Nam soon to take over as U.S. ambassador. He is expected to provide a single tight and unified command over U.S. civilian and military efforts.

The soldier-diplomat was named to the Saigon post Tuesday by President Johnson after the resignation of Ambassador Henry Cabot Lodge. Taylor plans to leave for his new post in 10 days or two weeks.

Lodge said he was coming home to help Pennsylvania Gov. William W. Scranton try to win the GOP presidential nomination.

Lodge Not Candidate

In Saigon Tuesday night, Lodge declared: "I am not a candidate at all and I am not going back at all in order to connive at anything for myself. I cannot be drafted and there are no hidden meanings."

Scranton said he was delighted at Lodge's decision and added, "This is another big boost for this rapidly expanding campaign."

Johnson's selection of Taylor for the hot spot assignment won strong approval on Capitol Hill. Democrats and Republicans joined in predicting overwhelming Senate confirmation.

In South Viet Nam, Taylor will have under him two old friends in key spots—Lt. Gen. William C. Westmoreland as U.S. military commander and veteran diplomat U. Alexis Johnson as his political deputy.

No Magic Solution

Westmoreland, one of the most promising of the Army's younger generals, has been considered a "Taylor man" for about a decade. Westmoreland

Cigarettes to Bear Warning

FHC Orders Labels
Giving Notice of Hazards to Health

WASHINGTON (AP)—The Federal Trade Commission issued a rule today requiring that by next year all cigarette labels and advertising inform the public "that cigarette smoking is dangerous to health and may cause death from cancer and other diseases."

The commission rule says that it is an unfair or deceptive practice for a manufacturer "to fail to disclose, clearly and prominently, in all advertising and on every pack, box, carton or other container in which cigarettes are sold" that smoking is a health hazard.

The commission ruled that the cigarette package labels should have this warning by Jan. 1, 1965 and that advertising should include the warning by July 1, 1965.

Exact Wording Not Given

The commission, however, did not state the exact language that cigarette manufacturers would have to use in their advertising and labeling warnings.

In a 153-page statement that accompanied the ruling, the commission said it was leaving the individual cigarette companies and advertisers "free to formulate the required disclosure in any manner that intelligently conveys the sense of the required disclosure in a fully conspicuous fashion."

Passman Loses Fight For Foreign Aid Cut

WASHINGTON (AP)—It has been Rep. Otto E. Passman's boast that his appropriations subcommittee has slashed more than $8 billion from foreign aid in the nine years he has been chairman.

Tuesday, the Louisiana Democrat was beaten in his own subcommittee. It refused to go along with Passman's demand for a $514 million cut in the $3.5-billion foreign aid bill.

Passman stalked out of the closed meeting, telling reporters he would temporarily step down as chairman so he could oppose a search by a posse of state and county officers.

GOP House Leaders Critical of Sessions Until Convention Time

BY WILLIAM F. ARBORGAST
WASHINGTON (AP)—President Johnson's call to Congress and start action on his antipoverty program before the convention next month's Republican national Convention brought angry protests today from GOP House leaders.

"It just isn't fair play," said Republican Leader Charles A. Halleck of Indiana.

Laird Angered

"This looks like an attempt by the President to sabotage the Republican convention," commented Rep. Melvin R. Laird of Wisconsin, chairman of the GOP Platform Committee.

The committee starts its sessions in San Francisco July 6, authorities have been alerted to one week before the convention the theft of 41 rifles and 1,000 rounds of ammunition from a National Guard armory here in Covington.

Physician Electrocuted At Oshkosh

OSHKOSH — Dr. Ernest A. Strakosch, 2164 Point Comfort, Oshkosh, was accidentally electrocuted at 7:45 a.m. today while taking a bath at his home.

The dermatologist had undergone surgery about a month ago and was taking a sponge bath, according to Winnebago County Coroner Arthur Miller.

Miller said Mrs. Strakosch was adjusting a heat lamp for her husband and he reached up to help and was electrocuted when he touched the lamp. There was about two inches of water in the tub, Miller said.

The coroner said a post-mortem examination confirmed that death was by electrocution.

Senate Approves $400,000 to Aid Lakes Fisheries

WASHINGTON (AP)—The Senate approved an amendment offered by Sen. Philip A. Hart, D-Mich., and added $400,000 to help rehabilitate Great Lakes fisheries Tuesday before approving an appropriation of more than $1 billion for the Interior Department and related agencies.

Hart told his colleagues that the Botulism E scare last year brought Great Lakes fishing to a virtual standstill.

The Senate also approved on a voice vote a treasury-post-office appropriation of more than $6.2 billion.

Three amendments offered by Sen. William Proxmire, D-Wis., were rejected. One would have cut appropriations in the Coast Guard and post office by $15.8 million. Two others would have increased appropriations for the internal revenue and customs services by a total of $7.7 million.

MOUNT DESERT, Maine (AP)—Moonwatchers expect an excellent view of a reddish glow in the sky tonight.

It will be the first of two total eclipses of the moon this year.

Many parts of the world will view the phenomenon, but one of the finest vantage points is expected to be on 1,530-foot Cadillac Mountain on the island of Mount Desert off Maine.

The eclipse begins at 5:48 p.m. EST when the moon enters the earth's penumbra — the almost invisible shadow of the earth. Totality will last from 8:16 p.m. to 8:57 p.m. The moon will leave the penumbra at 11:14 p.m.

The next total lunar eclipse comes Dec. 18.

Confidence Vote Won By Premier of Japan

TOKYO (AP)—Prime Minister Hayato Ikeda today won the first non-confidence vote brought against him since he took office in July 1960.

Brillion Council Given Preliminary Plat for Annexed Territory

Plans Include Lots for 48 Homes, Possibility of 3-Family Units

BRILLION — A preliminary plat for recently annexed territory, the Stichtart addition, was presented to the city council at its meeting Monday.

Plans for the land, owned by the Brillion Housing Corp., include the extension of Main Street south to the county road and 48 lots for residential building. The plan also includes the

Two Potential Water Sources Investigated

Wisconsin Board Of Health Group At Chilton Sites

CHILTON—Two potential Chilton water sources are being inspected today by a State Board of Health delegation.

Being studied are the troubled test hole located near Webster and Douglas streets and an abandoned well near the city hall.

The inspection of the abandoned well resulted from a request made to the State Board of Health last summer asking that the city hall well be filled in and sealed off. The plea was made directly to O. W. Moegge, department head, at a meeting here. Moegge, however, asked that a series of tests be run on the well before any action is taken.

Water Quality

Quality of the water led the city to quit the well many years ago, according to City Clerk Arthur Pohland. It had a high salt content and the well was a poor producer, only about 25 gallons per minute.

The utility commission asked to seal off the well because it feared that it was drawing from the water table of other wells in the area. It is more than 800 feet deep compared with an average of about 180 feet for the four operational wells.

Also slated for a visit is the new test hole. A fill-in of fine granulated material has troubled drillers at the site for months and caused the city to abandon one hole in favor of drilling a new test hole nearby.

Work at Standstill

Conditions failed to improve and work at the second site is at a standstill. City officials hope the state team will provide suggestions on what course they should follow when work is resumed.

One of the well-mysteries was solved this week. The troublesome fill material was at first thought to be deteriorated limestone, but a sample sent to the University of Wisconsin geology department for analysis turned out to be dolomite.

Dr. Meredith E. Strom, assistant state geologist, said the source of the material is unknown but is very likely one or more weathered zones of Niagara dolomite. He said the condition might clear up under prolonged pumping and if not, efforts should be made to seal it off.

The latter is what has been troubling city officials and engineers.

Firemen Called

WAUPACA — Firemen were called to the IGA Foodliner store on W. Fulton Street, shortly after noon Tuesday, when a motor which operates the moving belt on a checkout counter started smoking.

Waupaca's 'Victorian Age'

Topless Bathing Suits 'Verboten,' And What's More—So Is Lot More

BY JOHN SAWALL
Post-Crescent Staff Writer

WAUPACA—Way back in 1901, Waupaca's city fathers must have anticipated the 1964 version of the topless bathing suit.

There's no question that such attire is "verboten" on the beaches. And what's more, so is a lot more.

According to a 1901 ordinance, it's unlawful to bath in any stream, pond or lake in the City of Waupaca unless the bather wears a swimming suit which covers all the body from the shoulders to the knees.

The Victorian-age ordinance is still on Waupaca's books. As a result, a girl with so modest a swimsuit as a bikini is subject to fine of not less than $2, nor more than $5. And if the bikini-wearer doesn't have the change in her pocket to pay the fine, she's subject to a three-day stretch in the city jail.

Men, too!

But don't laugh, fellas, the law says "bathers" and it isn't confined only to the distaff sex. It means men, too.

Least there is a sudden rush up to the attic for grandma's and grandpa's suits. Don't be hasty.

Police Chief Fred Rasmussen said he isn't planning a strenuous inspection program on the city's beaches.

But the city council might decide to make amendments to the old law to keep pace with some of today's less modern swimming attire, or even to cover the uncovering of today's more modern swimsuits.

Checking old city ordinances shows that many laws are being broken on a regular basis.

One old law still in effect, passed on Jan. 5, 1877, says it is unlawful for anyone to ride or drive over a bridge within

Three Youths Admit Theft

Boys Out Camping Break Into Tavern, Steal Money, Beer

MANAWA — Three Manawa youths, two 15 years old and one 14-year-old, have admitted entering the Prellwitz Tavern early Saturday morning and taking more than $150 in cash, three cases of beer, a six pack of beer plus wine and brandy.

The boys told Undersheriff William Mork and Manawa Police Chief Kenneth Stevens they had been camping out when they decided to break into the tavern and take some beer. While in the tavern they discovered the box containing cash. After leaving the tavern they divided the money. Mork said an estimated $60 has been recovered. The building was entered by removing a piece of glass from a rear window.

The boys will be referred to juvenile authorities, Mork said.

Blaze in Mable Creek Tuesday Is Second in Week by Machines While Unloading Hay

NEW LONDON—Fire, caused by a tractor unloading hay, destroyed the second barn in a week near here.

Destroyed by fire Tuesday afternoon was a barn on a farm owned by George Roloff in the Town of Maple Creek.

It first was believed three calves, imprisoned in the barn yard adjacent to the barn had perished, until about an hour after the fire when they were discovered by firemen coming out of a lean-to on the chicken coop in the barnyard.

New London fireman Glenn Thorpe managed to catch the two frightened calves and throw them over the fence unhurt by the blaze just before the flames engulfed the small building that had sheltered them for more than an hour.

The fire was reported to the New London Volunteer Fire Department by Mrs. Roloff at 2:30 p.m. She said her husband had come in from the barn saying that the tractor had backfired

Seymour Approves Two Work Projects

City Has Title to Fire Station Land; Sewer, Water Extension Studied

SEYMOUR — Action was authorized for two major projects at the city council meeting Monday.

An agreement was reached with Robert Miller, who operates a concessions stand at the city park. Miller agreed to clean up the grounds after events during which his stand is operating.

He said that during the high school activities a school organization assisted him for a share in the profits, and would probably help with the cleanup of the park grounds.

The question of paying $140 to have lettering of "Seymour" painted on both sides of the water tower was postponed until the June 29 meeting.

Mechanic Dies When Truck Cab Falls on Him

OSHKOSH—A mechanic was crushed to death early Tuesday as he worked under a truck cab at the O'Brien Transportation Co., 720 Witzel Ave.

Dead is Louis James, 40, of rural Ripon. His body was found about 7 a.m. by an employee. Authorities said the man had been dead about two hours when the body was discovered crushed under the cab.

James was apparently working on a truck engine and is believed to have severed a hydraulic line which held up the cab over the engine. With the pressure released, the cab fell on James, crushing him. James was working alone at the time of the accident.

Assign New Sergeant To St. Norbert ROTC

DE PERE — Lt. Col. Clall W. Babler, professor of military science at St. Norbert College, has announced the addition of Sgt. I.C. Alvin W. Goodman to the ROTC staff at the college.

Sgt. Goodman replaces M. Sgt. Raymond L. Wisniewski, who retired in March after 25 years of active duty in military service.

Ship Built by Chinese Welcomed in Japan

Plamann Park Road Problem Meeting Topic

County, Grand Chute Representatives To Talk With Objectors

Legal discussions pertaining to a road which went under construction 12 days ago in the southwest corner of Plamann Park will be the next step in a continuing battle between Town of Grand Chute residents and Town Chairman Arthur Lecker.

Lecker, a member of the Outagamie County's parks committee, and other committee members met Monday with 15 town residents who object to a road which would skirt Town of Grand Chute homes on the west end of the park as it runs to property owned by two of Lecker's daughters.

Lecker has explained the road could serve as an access to a section of the park which might be developed for camping purposes. Lecker is paying the road construction costs.

Objectors, including Mrs. Robert Plamann, widow of the Town of Grand Chute resident who donated the park property in his will, protest that the property should be used for park purposes only, and the planned road would not comply.

Meeting Planned

County officials said today that legality of the project will be discussed at a meeting sometime next week between an attorney representing the objectors, Town Atty. Donald Herring and County Corporation Counsel A. W. Ponath.

Meanwhile, construction on the project has been held up.

Committee members Monday told objectors the committee and the Outagamie County Board acted in good faith when they approved the project. The committee suggested objectors approach the Grand Chute board and request action to rescind the roadway request.

Iron Works Tells Plans to Shut Down Foundry

BRILLION — Brillion Iron Works has announced its foundry division would shut down from July 25 through Aug. 3 so the maintenance crews could perform major overhauls.

The farm equipment division announced there would not be an official shut-down this year. Earlier plans had called for a two-week lay-off, but the heavy workload changed these plans, company officials said.

"Vacations will be staggered in the equipment division. Those in the foundry will be taken at one time."

Final Rail-Carried Mail Dispatch Leaves Chilton

CHILTON — The final mail dispatch to leave Chilton by rail headed north at 10:45 p.m. Tuesday on a Milwaukee Road passenger train.

Pickup of the mail from the depot box and post office mail bags marked the end of the night mail for local residents. 5:45 p.m. but some time is needed for handling. Mail dropped off at the post office between 5 and 6 p.m. had in the past been accommodated and shipped by rail.

This completes the truck mail changeover for the local post office, Weber said.

He also announced the Sun-per club on State 21 just east of the U.S. 41, left an estimated $50,000 in personal property and $50,000 in real estate.

Widow Gets $100,000 From Robbins Estate

OSHKOSH — Lowell R. Robbins, Oshkosh, who died June 17, left his entire estate, estimated at $100,000, to his widow, according to terms of the will admitted Tuesday to probate by Judge Herbert J. Mueller.

Robbins, who operated a sun-per club on State 21 just east of the U.S. 41, left an estimated $50,000 in personal property and $50,000 in real estate.

Pea Pack in Full Swing; Lag in Metal Industries Not Evident

CHILTON — With the metal fabrication industries unaffected thus far by the traditional summer lag and with the seasonal pea pack in full swing, the city's employment picture is bright.

None of Chilton's major employers has had to order a lay-off of any significance this year, officials of the firms said Tuesday. In the case of Chilton Metal Products Co. and the Aluminum Specialty Co., both metal fabricators and shapers, this is the exception rather than the rule.

John Weiland, head of Chilton Metal Products, said demands are keeping two full shifts going. The company employs "in excess of 200," Weiland said.

Diversification

The firm's continued diversification is partially responsible for what up to now, has been stable employment. Weiland said.

"A year ago we were laying off people. Now we're hiring," said Fred Padgett, plant manager of the Aluminum Specialty Co. factory here. It is a branch of Aluminum Specialty, Manitowoc.

Padgett said there has been a few additions to the plant's 200-man work force and he expects there will be a gradual increase in hiring.

Melvin Laird Is Candidate For Re-Election

Veteran Republican Is Key Figure in House Leadership

Melvin R. Laird, Marshfield, one of the top Republican leaders in the House of Representatives, today announced his candidacy for re-election.

Laird, who will be chairman of a powerful platform committee at this year's national Republican Party convention, has been Seventh District congressman for the past 12 years.

In the House, Laird serves on the important House Appropriations Committee and has been the GOP leader in a government economy drive. He is the ranking Republican on the Appropriations Subcommittee on Labor, Health, Education and Welfare.

AAL Magazine Wins First Prize in State Publications Contest

"Correspondent" magazine, published by Aid Association for Lutherans, has placed first in state wide competition in the 1964 Wisconsin Industrial Editors' awards program. The first place rating was in the field of industrial magazines having external circulation.

The award-winning plaque, which was for four issues published during 1963, was presented to AAL at the publications awards dinner in Milwaukee Friday evening. The contest was sponsored by the University of Wisconsin School of Journalism, in cooperation with the Wisconsin Manufacturers Association.

T. H. Hartman, AAL vice president and director of staff services, is editor of the magazine. Carl N. Poole is managing editor and Robert E. Mickelson is editorial assistant. Walter L. Rugland, AAL president, is chairman of the editorial committee.

"Correspondent" has a quarterly circulation of 500,000 copies, which are mailed to AAL's adult members in 47 states and five provinces in Canada. In 1960, the magazine also placed first in a similar contest sponsored by the Wisconsin Industrial Editors' Association.

Defense Committee

He is the senior member of the Defense Appropriations Committee. This committee not only has access to the top secret policy planning activities of the nation, but has control of line item appropriations of almost $50 billion yearly.

Earlier this year, former President Dwight Eisenhower called Laird one of the 12 Americans best qualified to be president of the United States.

As GOP convention platform committee chairman, he will have the responsibility for establishing the policy positions of the Republican Party for the 1964 presidential campaign.

A leader in sponsoring dairy legislation, Laird co-sponsored a recent bill to provide for the free movement of milk in interstate commerce.

Laird, who served six years as a member of the State Senate before his election to Congress, is a World War II veteran, a member of the Veterans of Foreign Wars, the American Legion, 40 at 8, Disabled American Veterans, and the Military Order of the Purple Heart.

A graduate of Carleton College, Northfield, Minn., he is married and has three children, John, 16; Alison, 13; and David, 10.

Kill Weeds In River Near Chilton

CHILTON — The weed-choked Manitowoc River should flow a little more freely through here as a result of aquatic weed control measures carried out recently. For the second successive year the pond area upstream from the State Street dam to Hobart Park has been sprayed with a weed-killing chemical, sodium arsenite. The work was carried out by Aqua - Neutral, Milwaukee, under the supervision of the State Board of Health's committee on water pollution.

Cost of the work was $456. It was requested by shoreline property owners who complained to the council the underwater weeds were spoiling the stream from both recreational and scenic standpoints. Use of the chemical on successive years usually effects a prolonged curb of the growth. It is not harmful to marine life but swimming in the treated area was prohibited for 48 hours.

Seven Games Set For Central Boys League This Week

MARION — The Central Wisconsin Boys Baseball League has seven games scheduled for play this week. In the Eastern division Tuesday, Black Creek was at Bonduel and Keshena at Seymour. Shiocton drew a bye. Thursday Shiocton will be at Keshena and Seymour will visit Bonduel. Black Creek is not scheduled. Western division play Thursday finds Iola at Bear Creek, Weyauwega at Manawa and Marion at Waupaca.

In games last week, the Waupaca Americans won over Manawa 19-0, and the Waupaca-Nationals shut-out Manawa 7-0. J. Rice was the winner for the Americans and Ken Taffa for the Nationals. Bear Creek at Weyauwega was postponed and Iola forfeited two games to Marion.

Marion played two non-league games with Bonduel Friday, losing the first 4-3 and coming back in the nightcap to take a 15-10 win.

Thunders Past
Chilton, 11-0

Seven-Run Inning
By Sheboygan Falls
Seals Tiger Doom

CHILTON—A seven-run outburst in the first inning was more than enough for the Sheboygan Falls Falcons as they rolled to an 11-0 win over a shorthanded Chilton Tiger '9' Sheboygan Falls Tuesday night.

The Falcons jumped on Tiger starter Jim Vogel for five hits before he departed without having retired a man.

Al Whitby relieved and gave up one more hit in the first inning but seven runners crossed the plate before the side was retired.

Falls had six hits including a two-run triple by Dean Wildermuth in the first.

The winners added a run in the second and two more in the third on Jerry LeMahieu's double. They added an unneeded insurance run in the fifth.

Whitby, who finished for the Tigers, yielded seven hits, fanned six and did not walk a man.

Tom Mueller gave up five hits in chalking up the shutout victory.

Chilton's only extra-base hits were doubles by Dave Schaefer and Scott Wilson.

The loss dropped the Tigers to a 2-3 record.

Enjoy Camaraderie

Regain That Collegiate Look by Smoking a Pipe

WASHINGTON (AP) — I've switched from cigarettes to pipe smoking. If the national production of matches and lighter fluid keeps steady, I think I might make it stick.

Keeping the pipe burning requires so much time and concentration I've scarcely given a thought to cigarettes.

Besides, a variety of compensations have come to light. For example:

There's a strong camaraderie among pipe smokers. They freely swap tobacco and pipe cleaners—and they welcome a novice as though he were a lodge brother. Generous with advice to neophytes, they even offer tips on pipe smoking by wearers of false teeth, which I have escaped so far.

Regained Youth

I've regained a measure of youth in the eyes of my daughters, who say: "Dad, you look positively collegiate."

I had been a cigarette smoker for about 30 of my 54 years when the report of the surgeon general's committee finally prompted me to try to quit.

I had been reporting scientists' treatises on the health hazards of cigarette smoking for years without giving up cigarettes.

In fact, some of my heaviest smoking has been done while writing such stories.

When the words wouldn't come the way I wanted them to, it was comforting to light a cigarette and inhale deeply. Maybe, too, there was an aspect of having something to do with temporarily idle hands.

Maybe chewing on a pencil would have had the same effect.

Two Weeks of Play

Three-Way Deadlock in Waupaca Softball Loop

WAUPACA—After two weeks of play, there is a three-way tie in the Major League division of the City Softball League. The Shell Oil holds the top spot in the Minor League division. First place in the Women's League is shared by Central Alleys and King's Roost. Teams tied for first in the Major league are the Casino, Legion and Lind Center.

In Major League play last week, the Casino remained undefeated by downing the Firemen, 20-13. Lind Center edged Sinclair in another double feature by a 14-13 score. The Legion team also remained undefeated by tripping up the Coliseum yellow, 50 lbs 2.00-2.25; Arizona No. 1 medium, Granel, Foundry won its first game over Cities Service, 4-1.

Thomas Kersten
Death Ruled
Traffic Fatality

Injuries received when he was struck by a car have been ruled as the cause of death of Thomas C. Kersten, 24, 303 W. Fourth St., Kaukauna, June 18.

Kersten, lying in the road on County Trunk M in the Town of Dale, was struck by a car being driven by Arthur Luedtke, 18, route 2, Hortonville.

Outagamie County Coroner Bernard H. Kemps said an autopsy conducted last week showed Kersten had no other injuries except those received when the car rolled over his body.

The autopsy was conducted by a pathologist. Kemps said the stable of pipes—one for every death would be classified as a day in the week — to assure keeping all of them cool smoking.

Don't rush your smoking; and don't chain smoke. If you do, you'll wind up with a tongue that feels like red ants had been at it.

Never inhale — you'll blow your hat off.

You can never hope to get over that ceaseless match scratching; it's just a cross a pipe smoker has to bear. However, with practice, you'll develop a "smoking rhythm" which will help you keep the fire lit.

However, your pipe has other advantages beyond smoking pleasure. In subfreezing weather, it provides a bit of heat for the nose; and, cradled in the hand, it can prevent frostbite.

If you want to cheat — and still masquerade as a self-disciplined soul — a cigarette crumpled up and shoved into the new pipe's bowl tastes just like a cigarette.

Progress on
G-L Plant's
Wing Good

KAUKAUNA — Progress on the $100,000 addition to the Lincoln Avenue plant of the Kaukauna division of the Giddings and Lewis Machine Tool Co. is moving along steadily with structural steel framework and concrete block exterior work nearly completed.

The new structure is an extension of the machine shop, designed to provide additional assembly area. Approximately 11,200 square feet of assembly floor space is added by the new building, almost doubling the 1960 space available.

Two Bays

The 79-by-139-foot addition will actually have two bays, a higher bay equipped with a 15-ton crane and the lower bay with a 5-ton crane. Large truck doors are provided at the eastern and western sides of the building.

Considerable use will be made of glass block windows and aluminum facing will be used on the side facing Outagamie County Trunk OO. Company officials indicated, if business trends continue, the building could result in the addition of 25 men to the work force by the end of the year.

The addition is expected to be completed later this summer. Hedrich Construction, Chilton, is general contractor, and architects are Sandstedt, Knoop and Yarbrow, Oshkosh.

RURAL AREAS

Thursday morning, June 25, between the hour of 3:30-4:30 a.m. your electric service will be temporarily interrupted. The interruption will affect all Power Company customers in the Township of Greenville. The interruption is necessary to permit Power Company crews to safely install a new, self regulating transformer at the Greenville Substation. Although work is scheduled to last one hour, service will be restored sooner if possible.

Innocent Plea Is Entered by Waupaca Man on Beer Charge

WAUPACA—Richard E. Olson, 21, route 1, Waupaca, pleaded innocent in municipal court Tuesday to a charge of furnishing beer for off premises consumption. He was bound over to county court for trial and released after posting a $150 property bond.

Olson was charged with furnishing beer for a party attended by at least six teen-agers, June 5, in the Town of Dayton. Five of the six teen-agers appeared earlier in court and were fined $50 and costs after they pleaded guilty to charges of drinking beer off licensed premises. The sixth pleaded not guilty and was bound over to county court. All were more than 18 years old.

Lucy Wants to Have Debates With Olson

MADISON (AP)—Patrick J. Lucy of Madison proposed a series of 10 debates today with the man he is challenging for re-election—Republican Lt. Gov. Jack Olson.

Loneliness Called Factor In All Mental Illnesses

BY JOHN F. WHEELER
COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP)—The subject almost never comes up in polite conversation. Yet, it is one of man's universal experiences. It is the theme in many ballads and in nearly all of the folk songs. Without it, there could be no "blues."
A patient who suffers from it says: "You feel this thing, but you can't talk about it."
"It" is loneliness.
Not the emotion of loneliness as the layman knows it, says Dr. John A. Whieldon, a professor of psychiatry at Ohio State University, but loneliness as the psychiatrists now view it—a key factor in all mental illness.
Whieldon, who has been treating loneliness patients since 1955, says loneliness patients since 1955 lost the capacity to do so. Such a person then falls back on a variety of defenses — sexual promiscuity, daydreaming, tantrums, narcissism, provocative ness, hyperactivity and "the what he terms 'only the fourth last defense — schizophrenia.'"
The professor finds, too, that loneliness is a lonesome if not lonely business. In his field, he says "it is surprising that so many anxieties I feel flattened out. At least when I was anxious, I knew I was alive. It isn't that I feel unhappy, but I just don't feel happy."
"One of the basic processes of childhood is to resolve one's loneliness," says Whieldon. To do this, everyone must learn "to make meaningful emotional contact with others."
The lonely person, he believes, never learns to do this or has lost the capacity to do so. Such a person then falls back on a variety of defenses — sexual promiscuity, daydreaming, tantrums, narcissism, provocative ness, hyperactivity and "the what he terms 'only the fourth last defense — schizophrenia.'" served on Taylor's staff when the new ambassador was the Army's chief in the mid-1950s.

Gen. Taylor Prepares To Fly to S. Viet Nam

Johnson, deputy undersecretary of state for political affairs, has been close to Taylor for about 30 years. He said in an interview, "We have no magic answers but we are determined to do our best."

Stepping in behind Taylor as the new chairman of the Joint Chiefs of Staff will be another Taylor "disciple," Gen. Earle G. Wheeler, who now is Army chief of staff.

Although congressional reaction to Taylor's appointment was mostly enthusiastic Sen. Wayne Morse, D-Ore., called Johnson's decision to nominate a military man "a calamitous mistake." Morse served notice he will fight Taylor's confirmation in the Senate Foreign Relations Committee and on the Senate floor.

Most other members of the committee, including Chairman J. W. Fulbright, D-Ark., voiced warm praise of the selection.

Some committee members interpreted the appointment as another sign that military operations in South Viet Nam will be intensified at the risk of war with Red China in an effort to prevent a Communist takeover in Southeast Asia.

Senate Democratic Leader Mike Mansfield of Montana called Taylor a "great statesman-soldier" who is fully aware of the situation as it exists in Viet Nam. Gen. Taylor is the best possible man to serve at this most difficult time in this most critical area."

Sen. Bourke B. Hickenlooper of Iowa, senior Republican on the Foreign Relations Committee, also predicted confirmation, calling Taylor an able military man. He said Taylor's appointment, along with that of Johnson, offered "the combined strength of a consolidated approach."

Sen. Allen J. Ellender, D-La., said the choice of Taylor for the Saigon post "means action—this means war."

Sen. Hubert H. Humphrey of Minnesota, assistant Senate Democratic leader, said the President had assembled "the best team we could possibly place in Viet Nam."

Sen. Barry Goldwater of Arizona, front-runner for the GOP presidential nomination, made no comment on the political implications of Lodge's return. He said "Ambassador Lodge is to be congratulated for bearing up this long under such adverse

Mrs. Nhu Asks Johnson for Visa to U. S.

PARIS (AP)—Mrs. Ngo Dinh Nhu appealed today to President Johnson to overrule the State Department and allow her to enter the United States as a visitor.

The outspoken former First Lady of South Viet Nam wrote to the President after announcement Tuesday that her request for a visa had been refused.

Mrs. Nhu, sister-in-law of the late President Ngo Dinh Diem and widow of Saigon's onetime chief of internal security, sought the visa to speak July 7 at a "truth rally" of the Conservative Party Club of Flushing, N.Y.

Embassy officials disclosed Mrs. Nhu's application for a visa had been rejected on instructions from the State Department under a section of the immigration and nationality law which bars visas for persons whose activities are considered likely to prejudice public interest or endanger the welfare, safety or security of the United States.

Woman Driver Dies At Wheel of Auto

MOUNT HOREB (AP) — The body of Mrs. Karl Mickelson, 70, of Mount Horeb was found Tuesday after her car crashed into a utility pole north of Mount Horeb. Deputy Coroner Ernest Ferckland said Mrs. Mickelson died of a heart attack before the crash.

To Battle Communism

Free World at Our Side, Khanh Tells Vietnam

SAIGON, South Viet Nam (AP)—Premier Nguyen Khanh told his people today: "The free world countries are right at our side and if necessary will tackle the problem of communism right at its roots."

His statement coincided with a declaration from Peking that the situation in Indochina has become increasingly grave in preparation for new military adventures in southern Viet Nam. Japanese papers were expressing concern over U.S. policy.

Two-Day Tour

Khanh said appointment of Gen. Maxwell D. Taylor as the new U.S. ambassador to Saigon is proof of the U.S. administration's determination to continue exterminating communism to preserve freedom."

Khanh spoke at the Gulf of Thailand town of Rach Gia, at the end of a two-day tour of the southern Mekong River Delta.

Henry Cabot Lodge, who is retiring as ambassador, said he does not see how the war here can be an issue in the U.S. presidential campaign. "It involves the Eisenhower administration and the Kennedy administration," he said.

A Red Chinese broadcast from Peking said the Communist vice premier, Chen Yi, spoke of U.S. preparations "for new military adventures."

"The situation in Indochina has become increasingly grave in the past few days," he said. "In disregard of the serious protests of the Laotian and Chinese people, the United States is continuing its wanton bombing in Laos and stepping up its preparations for new military adventures in southern Viet Nam. Following Taylor's appointment, editorial writers in Tokyo were taking a close look at Indochina — which Japan ruled in World War II.

The paper Asahi said the United States seemed to be adopting a policy of force in order to improve its position for a presumed political situation after U.S. elections. The Daily Yomiuri said there is the possibility that Chinese "volunteers," in the style of the Korean War, will go to North Viet Nam if the United States bombs its capital, Hanoi.

The Japan Times spoke hopefully of a policy that will not result in expansion of the area of conflict.

Both Communist and non-Communist papers in Hong Kong predicted the United States will step up its military activities in Southeast Asia.

confined to the Milwaukee police force," Barland said. "It's a $35,000 package now and I'm beginning to wonder where it is going to take us."

Board chairman Sen. Walter Hollander, R-Rosendale, said that each time the group meets it gets a new request for funds to finance the investigation.

Cole replied that he recognized the requests have been numerous. However, he said, Republican Atty. Gen. George Thompson had "inherited" the investigation from Reynolds.

The board balked at spending $134,800 to help Wisconsin's tourist industry and also voted to slash funds requested for rehabilitation of the mentally and physically handicapped.

The board decided that there was no emergency involved in a request for a $100,000 increase in the Conservation Department's budget to advertise the state's tourist industry. The board said it would consider the request at a September meeting.

Also tabled was a request by the Resource Development Department for $34,800 to establish a pair of recreation coordinators to stimulate the recreation industry in northern Wisconsin.

The Board on Government Operations cut from $205,101 to $68,367 a request by the Vocational and Adult Education Agency to hire additional counselors to rehabilitate mentally and physically handicapped.

One item approved was release of $60,000 in Conservation Department funds for development of camping units at the Yellowstone wildlife area in Lafayette County.

Coast of Cuba Claimed Mined

MIAMI, Fla. (AP)—The Exile News Service claimed today that Cuba's northwest coast has been mined to prevent anti-Castro landings and to keep Cubans from fleeing the country.

The service, quoting underground sources, said mines have been placed 600 feet apart along the Pinar del Rio Province coast, that faces Florida.

DeGaulle Welcomes Cambodian Prince

PARIS (AP) — French President Charles de Gaulle personally welcomed Cambodia's chief of state, Prince Norodom Sihanouk, today for a three-day state visit.

De Gaulle and the Cambodian ruler are expected to stress neutralization for Southeast Asia. Both France and Cambodia support neutralization as the only feasible solution to the war in South Viet Nam.

Topless Swim Suit Bans Beauty Entry

MALLEN, Tex. (AP) — The American Legion post chapter has refused to admit an entrant in their annual bathing beauty review who wanted to wear a topless bathing suit.

Blanche Doster, executive secretary of the June 3 review, declined to identify the would-be contestant.

$500,000 Grant

MADISON (AP)—The University of Wisconsin Department of Physical Anthropology has received a grant of more than $500,000 to expand graduate student training in the next five years.

The university announced Tuesday that the National Institute of Dental Research contributed $216,722 and the General Medical Sciences Section of the National Institutes of Health $341,204.

"Ask any Camel smoker!"

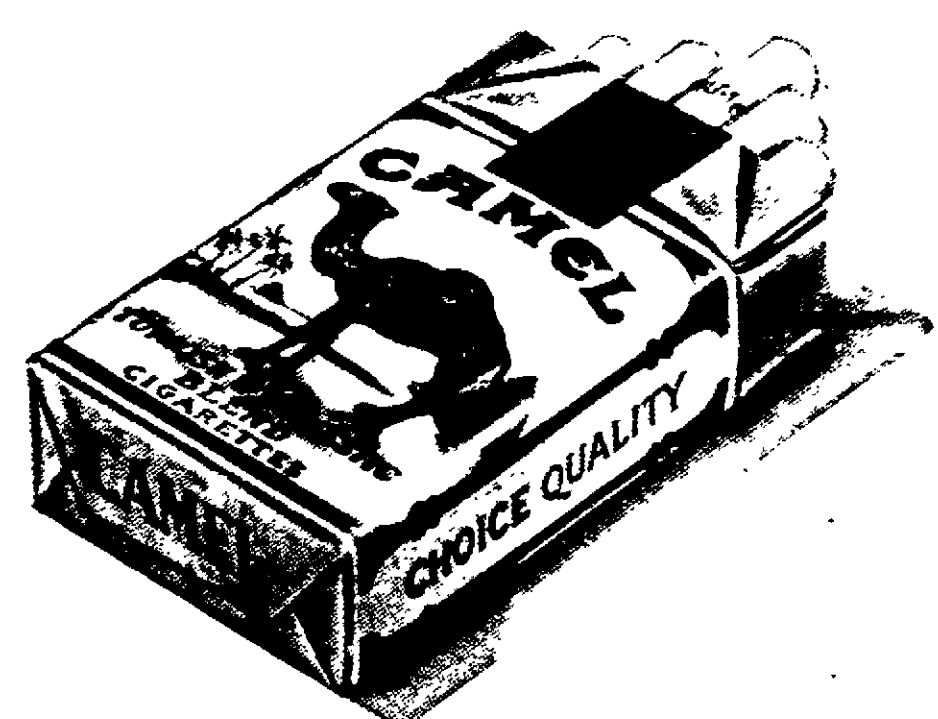

Why Camel?

Well, like most people, Camel smokers shopped around a lot before they made Camel their brand. They still try another smoke once in a while when they run out.

But, for their steady choice, they go for quality. And that's Camel. The best tobacco makes the best smoke. It's as true today as ever before.

That's why, year after year, Camel remains the overwhelming choice of smokers who prefer regular cigarettes...the millions of men and women who enjoy the smoking pleasure that goes with theory Behind ew Hampshire's ate Lottery

CHICAGO (AP) — The state of New Hampshire, which is producing big gains and bigger income for the state, generally has been a legislative hotbed in the nation. California is taking steps to follow New Hampshire's lead in the first drawing for the 1964 State Sweepstakes in public school support. Hampshire will be next. Buyers' names will be drawn from a drum containing $1 million worth of tickets. Those drawn will be assigned to the 332 horses nominated for the Sept. 12 sweepstakes race at Rockingham Park race track. Subsequent drawings will be held for each additional $1 million in tickets sold. Backers say the New Hampshire plan will swell state coffers and mollify taxpayers. "A man would rather lay a bet than pay a tax," the logic goes. Thus far only Californians have seen the logic. In November, they'll vote on a referendum to establish a state-franchised, privately operated lottery. The initiative would write a 10-year monopoly on the lottery into the state constitution in behalf of American Sweepstakes Corp. The firm would sell $2 tickets, keeping 26 cents and turning in $1.74 to the state for prizes, operating expenses and public school support. Gov. Edmund G. Brown's Democratic administration op-

Judge Watts Wins Circuit Bench

ELKHORN (AP) — County Judge Ernst Watts of Delavan was elected Tuesday to the newly created post of circuit judge for Walworth County. He defeated his colleague, County Judge Erwin Zastrow of Elkhorn, 3,879 to 2,170. Watts has handled juvenile and probate cases in Walworth County Court for the last three and one-half years. He will assume the duties of circuit judge in October and serve until January, 1966.

No Opinion Is Expected on Delegate Votes

Concerning Release Of Primary Pledges Prior to Convention

MADISON (AP) — Secretary of State Robert Zimmerman can expect a turnaround on his request for legal advice on whether Wisconsin's national convention delegates can be freed from primary pledges before voting begins on a presidential nominee. Zimmerman has asked Attorney General George Thompson for an opinion to settle a flurry of questions directed to the election division of his office. But it was learned today that the attorney general probably will not respond to the fellow Republican's request on grounds the information is not necessary to the function of Zimmerman's office. Election Officer As the state's central election officer, the secretary does serve as the filing official for candidates and provide vote canvasses and election certificates. State statute gives him no additional duties regarding a presidential primary. The question of when convention delegates may be released was raised again Sunday after Gov. John W. Reynolds instructed the Wisconsin Democratic slate to vote for President Johnson on the first ballot. Reynolds ran as a favorite day on all ensuing ballots, provision in the April 7 primary and provided, however, that if on any ballot said candidate shall receive less than 10 per cent of the total vote cast on such ballot, the governor, who served two terms as attorney general before Thompson, took the position that Wisconsin primary law gave him authority to release his delegates to "participate immediately" in the process of picking the party's nominee. Rep. John W. Byrnes of Green Bay, the state's Republican favorite son candidate for president, is debating advance release of the 30 delegates pledged to him. But Byrnes appears anxious to get a supporting opinion from the attorney general. The statutory provision subject to interpretation is contained in the pledge delegates must take to get on the primary ballot. In part, it reads: "I will, until released by said candidate, vote for his candidate on all ensuing ballots, provision in the April 7 primary and provided, however, that if on any ballot said candidate shall receive less than 10 per cent of the total vote cast on such ballot, I am released from his announced pledge and shall thereafter have the right to cast my ballot according to my own judgment." Recent precedent for the advance release of delegates was set in 1960 by Sen. Hubert Humphrey of Minnesota. The senator had 10½ Wisconsin votes pledged to him, and in bowing out of the race for the Democratic nomination he freed all his delegates—the Wisconsin convention balloting began when the first and deciding roll call came 2¼ of Humphrey's votes were registered for John F. Kennedy. Loan for Oil Pipeline DAMASCUS, Syria (AP) — Oil-rich Kuwait is lending Algeria $21 million for construction of a 500-mile oil pipeline from the Sahara to the Mediterranean, Kuwait radio announced. Tuesday, York's doctors were beginning to hint that he might soon return to his home in tiny Pal Mall, Tenn., about 140 miles northeast of here. The 76-year-old medal of honor winner was rushed here June 19 after suffering a recurrence of internal bleeding.

Sgt. York on Critical List

NASHVILLE, Tenn. (AP) — World War I hero Sgt. Alvin York has been placed on the critical list at Veterans Hospital here as the result of pneumonia in his right lung. "He has developed pneumonia and his blood pressure has fallen," said a hospital spokesman. "This may be due to a blood clot in the lung, which he has had before, or a blood stream infection. He is a sick man." Until pneumonia developed Tuesday, York's doctors were beginning to hint that he might soon return to his home in tiny Pal Mall, Tenn., about 140 miles northeast of here. The 76-year-old medal of honor winner was rushed here June 19 after suffering a recurrence of internal bleeding.

New Laws, Techniques Are Aimed at Averting Violence

Mississippi Prepares for Increased Rights Activity

BY BUDDY LEHEW
JACKSON, Miss. (AP)—While in any form, persons are still demonstrating white citizens wait nervously for the state legislature, however, an increase in civil rights activity has added new laws, for use if it, this summer, Mississippi officials have armed themselves with new laws and techniques aimed at averting violence. Up until a few months ago, demonstrators usually were arrested the minute they appeared on the streets. In Jackson alone last summer more than 1,000 arrests were made. But a new approach appeared this winter, inaugurated in Hattiesburg — let the demonstrators have policed freedom of movement. The lack of attention, police theorized, would wear thin the ranks of the participants. In Hattiesburg, Canton, Greenwood and Clarksdale this plan was followed. Now only a few Johnson signed a law permit-ing cities to enter into mutual assistance pacts in times of racial duress in order for law enforcement agencies to marshal forces. Some cities have entered into such pacts with Jackson because of its big police force and riot control techniques and equipment. Other new laws permit cities to restrain movements of asking militant white groups to groups, set up curfews, ban the circulation of boycott literature, and increase penalties for violating city ordinances to a maximum of 90 days in jail and $300 fines. The state penitentiary can now be used by cities and counties when local jails prove inadequate for large numbers. Another side of the resistance coin is the secretive Ku Klux Klan. Cross Burnings Weekend cross burnings have dotted the state in the past few weeks apparently showing a highly organized segregationist group. Thus far, however, there have been no incidents or violence involving the Klan and Negroes, or civil rights workers. Mississippi officials have been let authorities handle race relations problems, an appeal which has drawn newspaper editorial support.

Viet Nam Situation Can Affect Election

Johnson's Tough Talk and Appointment Of Gen. Taylor Can Keep Reds Guessing

BY JAMES MARLOW
WASHINGTON (AP) — President Johnson's tough talk about stiff-arming the Communists in Viet Nam and his appointment of Gen. Maxwell D. Taylor as ambassador there is doubly useful to him. But what the rest of the country doesn't know—and perhaps the Johnson administration cannot tell, either—is what the United States is heading into in Southeast Asia. If this country gets directly into the fighting there—with a presidential campaign coming up—there's no way to predict what this will mean to Johnson's chances for election. But the tough talk and the Taylor appointment will keep the Communists guessing, if it doesn't discourage them, and both will be talking points for Johnson if the Republicans complain he isn't showing enough muscle. Brilliant Officer Taylor, chairman of the Joint Chiefs of Staff and this country's top-ranking military officer, is credited with being a tough and brilliant officer. He succeeds Henry Cabot Lodge who resigned to come home and help Pennsylvania's assume they understood he Gov. William W. Scranton try to win the Republican presidential nomination against Sen. Barry Goldwater. Goldwater has been acutely critical of the way the administration of both President John F. Kennedy and Johnson have handled Viet Nam. He has suggested pretty drastic action, more than Kennedy or Johnson were willing to take yet. If Goldwater wins the nomination over the efforts of Lodge and Scranton, he won't have to soft-pedal his criticism. But if Scranton gets the nomination, the Republican party in general will be in poor position to make Viet Nam an issue, and

Today in History

BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS
Today is Wednesday, June 24, the 176th day of 1964. There are 190 days left in the year. Today's highlight in history: On this date in 1948, the Soviet Union blockaded all land traffic between occupied Berlin and West Germany in a dispute over currency. The next day American and British planes began to supply the city in a gigantic airlift which lasted 321 days. On this date in 1520, the Spanish conqueror of Mexico, Hernando Cortez, entered Mexico City. In 1793, the first French Republic constitution was adopted. In 1940, Marshal Petain's French government signed an armistice with Italy. In 1941, President Franklin D. Roosevelt pledged that all possible aid would be granted to Russia. In 1945, Adolf Hitler's personal flag was dragged in the dust as the feature of a victory parade in Moscow. Ten years ago... Many areas of Des Moines, Iowa, were flooded when the Des Moines River reached a record high crest. Five years ago... Vice President Richard Nixon and Soviet Premier Khrushchev met for the first time at a conference in Moscow. One year ago... The Internal Revenue Service liberalized some of its new rules on expense-account tax deduction following protests by business leaders.
